Strike Ordered At Ford Plant For Tomorrow

Speed-Up of Assembly Line Blamed By Local as Tie-Up Authorized

DETROIT, May 3 (AP).—An authorized strike of 60,000 Ford Motor Company workers was ordered today.

The walkout was scheduled to begin at noon Thursday.

Local 600 of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) changed plans to call the strike tomorrow after the international executive board set the Thursday date.

A shutdown at Ford's big Rouge plant would soon tie up most of the company's far-flung operations.

Both the local and U.A.W. President Walter P. Reuther charged that Ford had speeded up assembly lines again today. Production rates have been the centre of a dispute for several weeks.

Ford tonight labeled the speed-up charge "an absolute untruth."

In a telegram to Reuther, John S. Bugas, Ford personnel director, called the charge "pure fabrication" which "appears to be a prime example of bad faith to drum up a strike atmosphere."

"This action on the part of Local 600 came at a time when further efforts to peaceably iron out this matter were scheduled between the parties," Bugas wired.

Things happened in quick and confused succession today.

A local committee checked the lines and reported the speed-up.

The local's executive board, in emergency session, ordered the strike at 10 a.m. tomorrow—whether or not the international approved.

SETS DEADLINE

Shortly afterward, the international executive board set the Thursday deadline and announced any walkout before then would be unauthorized.

In a second emergency session, Local 600 agreed to conform to the international's deadline.

The announcements broke when it appeared settlement was clear. After an investigation Monday, U.A.W. Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey reported Ford had slowed down the lines to a speed acceptable to the union.

Feeling was running high among Rouge workers in favor of a strike. Observers believed the international was forced to move quickly after the local's walkout order to offset a difficult situation within the union.

Vessel Sinks In River After Blast

NEWCASTLE, N.B., May 3 (CP).—A fire-blackened hulk, the 729-ton tanker Elkhound sank in midstream of the Miramichi River here late tonight after two explosions ripped through the nearly empty vessel.

One member of the 14-man crew, Fireman Wesley Weagles, Bridgewater, N.S., was reported "doing well" after being taken unconscious to the Miramichi hospital. He was asleep in his bunk when the first blast occurred.

Capt. Gordon T. Weston, Rexton, N.B., and another crew member, Wilfred Duplessis, Buctouche, N.B., suffered minor burns. Capt. Weston had declined to leave the scene and received only first aid treatment.

Damage on shore was confined to cracked and broken windows.

Fire of unknown cause started on one side of the vessel late today 15 minutes before her scheduled sailing time.

Will Remove Terrorists If Necessary—Wismer

Sons of Freedom, the troublesome Doukhobor sect, will be removed from lands in the Krestova area if there is any more terrorism, Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer stated yesterday.

Police investigations had shown, he said, that most of the recent terrorism had emanated from among 400 members of the fanatical sect in the Krestova district.

"They are squatting on Government land, they are not paying taxes, they are not sending their children to school and they are not fulfilling their duties as citizens," the Attorney-General said.

"I am not going to have this cesspool remain unless it is cleaned up. If there is any more trouble I am going to remove these people—where I don't know, but they will be removed.

SOMEWHAT BAFFLED

Mr. Wismer admitted, at the same time, that he was somewhat baffled as to how the problem can be worked out. Finding a place for 400 persons would be a tough job.

"After all," he remarked, "these people are human and there are the women and children."

Mr. Wismer said 20 provincial police and 20 mounted police would be kept in the area until the "situation is cleaned up."

Arrangements are being made for guards posted at all schools in the area to be sworn in as special constables, Mr. Wismer reported.

Strike Hinted If Short Week Not Given Men

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP).—The Street Railwaymen's Union today hinted that it will strike again if a 40-hour week is not granted by the B.C. Electric Railway Company.

Union lawyer, H. P. Mainikow, summing up the union's case before a conciliation board, warned:

"Reduction in hours with maintenance of real weekly wages has been promised for three years. The men are determined they will have the 40-hour week this year.

"I recommend the board make this recommendation to avoid further trouble in the future, which will be costly to the company, the men and of great inconvenience to the public."

The company already has warned that fares will be boosted if union demands are met.

Building of 126 Houses in Esquimalt Planned for Married Army Personnel

Construction of 126 houses for married army personnel on the site of the old Macaulay Camp at Esquimalt is being planned by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, A. A. Chauvin, branch manager, said yesterday.

If all C.M.H.C. plans are carried out, Victoria and district will gain about 778 houses in the near future. About 400 are slated for Belmont, 100 for Victoria and 152 for Saanich, if the council agrees to certain tax arrangements.

Mr. Chauvin said surveys for sewerage and water are now being made, and he is hoping for an early start. "The property is owned by the Department of National Defence," he said.

Seventy-six families now living in emergency shelter projects, supervised by the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council, will not be required to move immediately, according to Mr. Chauvin. Plans to meet this situation still have to be worked out, he explained.

DISAPPOINTED

Mr. Chauvin said he was disappointed in the stand taken by Saanich Council on fixed taxation. (Council has refused to allow C.M.H.C. to pay this year's taxes for five years).

"There is little we can do now. If Saanich doesn't change its stand, the 152-house project will be lost. C.M.H.C. won't cajole the council," declared Mr. Chauvin.

Plans for erection of 400 houses in the Belmont area for naval personnel are proceeding satisfactorily, according to the C.M.H.C. branch manager.

Victoria's 100-house project was approved by the provincial cabinet yesterday. The approval was required before a start could be made on the project, to be undertaken in scattered parts of the city. Council is expected to pass the necessary by-law soon.

The city provides lots to C.M.H.C. on a fixed taxation basis under the agreement. Victoria Housing Limited, made up of four local contractors, will build the units for the corporation.

All City Grade Schools Now Operating Safety Patrols

—Colonist Photo

With institution of safety patrols at St. Ann's Academy and St. Louis College this week, all city grade schools now are covered by the protective system. Students of St. Ann's Academy are pictured above as they held a practice yesterday. First official patrol will operate today. Constable Ian Duncan, who directs the Kiwanis Club Junior Safety Patrol, is seen instructing patrol members. The patrol system now comes under supervision of newly-formed city police traffic division headed by Sgt. Brooke Douglass, who did all the organizational work for the safety patrol system throughout the city.

BULLETINS

Labor Loses

GLASGOW, May 4 (Wednesday) (CP).—The Labor Party suffered a net loss of 43 seats with almost complete returns from yesterday's Scottish burgh elections, unofficial tabulations showed early today.

In the contest for 195 municipal councils, the unofficial tabulations showed Labor had lost 72 seats while gaining only 29.

Seeking Advice

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP).—The Vancouver Trades and Labor Council (T.L.C.) moved tonight to seek legal advice in order to unseat Seafarers' International Union representatives "as quickly as possible."

2,250 M.P.H.

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP).—The navy's new experimental rocket, the Viking, reached a height of 51½ miles today in its first trial at the White Sands proving grounds in New Mexico. The rocket reached a speed of 2,250 miles an hour, almost 21½ times the speed of sound, the navy announced.

Ship's Arrival Alerts Union

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP).—This city's waterfront, peaceful for more than a week, tensed again today with the arrival from the United Kingdom of two Canadian Seamen's Union-manned ships.

The Eastern-owned ships, the Ss. Rockside and Ss. Islandside, are now anchored in Burrard Inlet. Officials of the T.L.C.-affiliated C.S.U. said tonight that both will be strikebound and picketed when they berth.

Two other eastern-owned ships—the Seaside and Riverside—manned by the rival Seafarers' International Union, are still berthed in Esquimalt.

Another freighter, the Seaboard Pioneer is picketed by the C.S.U. at its Burrard Inlet mooring.

A sixth vessel, the Seaboard Star is at the same dock, and still has a C.S.U. crew aboard.

School By-Law Set for May 26

Victoria ratepayers will vote on a money by-law May 26 covering the city's share of estimated additional construction costs of Topaz Avenue Junior High School and View Royal Elementary School.

City Solicitor A. J. Patton said yesterday the Victoria by-law would probably be set at $111,000. He said ratepayers would go to the polls May 26, providing the city can meet legal requirements connected with the by-law's preparation by that time.

COSTS HIGHER

Lowest tender on the Topaz Junior High School was for $887,121, on View Royal Elementary School, $163,384. Rising construction costs were given as the reason for the tenders exceeding by $360,205 the sum of $694,300 already available for construction of the two schools under the 1947 school expansion by-law.

Municipalities in the Greater Victoria area must provide $180,102.50 and the Province a like amount to permit construction.

Victoria's share of the amount was set last month at $109,860; Oak Bay, $28,285; Saanich, within the school district, $29,579; Esquimalt, $9,075; rural areas within the district, $3,101.

MAY 26 LIKELY DATE

It is believed surrounding municipalities will place their school by-laws before the ratepayers on May 26.

Oak Bay will put to a vote a $60,000 drainage by-law on the same date as the school by-law. The scheme calls for improvement of drainage in all parts of the municipality.

Saanich ratepayers will vote on a $270,000 road by-law on same date. The plan calls for the expenditure of $35,000 in each ward and a certain amount on new equipment.

Block Road To Trap Fugitive

CHILLIWACK, B.C., May 3 (CP).—British Columbia Police tonight manned a road block at Yale, in the Fraser Canyon, in an attempt to trap a man believed to be one of three convicted prisoners who escaped from their escort, April 17.

Victims of two recent crimes in the vicinity said they believed they had seen John Stinson, 24. One, a dry cleaning establishment operator, said he was robbed by a man resembling Stinson. Another said a man resembling Stinson's photographs obtained $13 from the Canadian Legion by false pretences.

U.S. Military Governor To Vacate Post May 15

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP).—Gen. Lucius D. Clay will be relieved as United States military commander in Germany May 15 at his own request.

GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY

President Truman made the announcement today. It opens the way for the appointment of the first civilian high commissioner for Germany.

It is known that President Truman and State Secretary Dean Acheson are trying to persuade John J. McCloy to take that assignment.

Clay has been in Germany as deputy military governor and governor since 1946. He has said his fondest desire is to return to his home at Marietta, Ga., and "go cat-fishing."

Praising Clay for his handling of a "prodigious task of administration," the President noted that the General had repeatedly asked to be relieved from his post. He said that various emergencies had made that impossible before now but that conditions currently have reached a point where the Germans "are about to obtain a greatly-enlarged measure of political and economic responsibility."

Pending appointment of a civilian commissioner, Truman announced that Lt.-Gen. Clarence R. Huebner and Maj.-Gen. Roy P. Hays, Clay's military and Military Government deputies will carry on his work.

Drew to Visit East First, Victoria Later

Progressive Conservative Leader George Drew will definitely speak in Victoria during his cross-Canada election campaign tour, it was learned yesterday.

His itinerary will be announced today in Ottawa. A change has been made in his original plans. Instead of opening his campaign in Western Canada, Col. Drew will speak in the Maritime provinces at the beginning of next week.

After his Maritime tour he will address a few meetings in Ontario and Quebec and continue on to the Pacific Coast.

Says All Navy Men May Give Evidence

PRESENT and former officers and men of the R.C.N. and R.C.N. (R.) have been invited to give the board of inquiry investigating incidents aboard Canadian warships the benefit of their views, Rear Admiral E. R. Mainguy, board chairman, announced yesterday.

All former naval men wishing to express opinions to the board should communicate directly by letter addressed to The Chairman of the Board, Conference Room, Building 40, H.M.C. Dockyard, Esquimalt.

Hearings have been completed in Halifax and the board is now in Victoria.

Chiang Goes To Formosa

HONGKONG, May 3 (Reuters).—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has arrived in Formosa, it was reliably reported here today.

The report from Taipeh, Formosa, said the retired president arrived at Taichung, the island's largest town, this morning.

He was believed to have gone into conference with Government officials.

Shanghai Cut Off As Hangchow Lost

Reds Close Trap on Escape Port; No Fighting as City Occupied

SHANGHAI, May 4 (Wednesday) (AP).—The Shanghai garrison command today admitted the loss of Hangchow, Nationalist escape port 100 miles southwest of Shanghai.

(Communist control of Hangchow seals off Shanghai by land from the rest of China and closes the trap on Nationalist forces remaining in the Nanking-Shanghai-Hangchow triangle. Their only exit now is by sea.)

The garrison command communique, issued about 10 a.m., said the Chekiang Provincial Peace Preservation Corps evacuated Hangchow at noon yesterday after completing a delaying action. This force was all that was left for the defence of Hangchow.

After the peace preservation corps moved out, the communique said communication with the seacoast resort city was lost.

NO FIGHTING

The garrison confirmed earlier Chinese press dispatches which said Hangchow had gone over to the Communists peacefully. There was no fighting in defence of the city, the garrison said.

There was no indication that the Reds were closing in any tighter on Shanghai itself. Trains still were running to Luchiapang, 26 miles westward on the Shanghai-Nanking railway, and to Kashing, 50 miles southwest on the Shanghai-Hangchow line.

The Shanghai newspaper Shun Pao said Hangchow was occupied Tuesday by 4,000 Red soldiers.

The Communist radio made no mention of Hangchow Tuesday night but said more than 80,000 Government troops had been taken prisoner at the "conclusion of a great annihilation campaign in the Nanking-Shanghai-Hangchow triangle on April 29."

The Red broadcast from Peiping claimed 12 more towns had been captured south of the Yangtze, mostly with the aid of local guerrilla forces. The broadcast said "this takes the people's (Communist) army as far south as East Kiangsi."

(This would put Red troops more than 200 miles southwest of Shanghai and about the same distance south of Nanking.)

The next few days should tell what the Reds intend to do about Shanghai.

If they turn their forces toward this largest city of Asia, probably it will go, too, in a few days. But if they face south, it will probably mean Shanghai is to be by-passed temporarily.

Meanwhile, a United States Navy spokesman said United States, British and French warships had left Shanghai's waterfront because of a reported Communist plot to block their passage to the sea.

The spokesman said the United States Navy has not left the Shanghai area, and that three destroyers and one landing craft were anchored at Woosung. The landing craft makes daily runs to Shanghai.

Saanich Fixes Tax Rates

Saanich's two mill rates, approved by the council just before midnight last night, were only slightly changed from last year.

In School District No. 61, the rate was set at 39 mills, a half-mill increase over 1948, and in District 63 the rate was set at 41 mills, three-tenths of a mill less than last year.

Tentative rates set last week were 35.5 for District 61 and 37.5 in District 63. General mill rate, tentatively set this year at 15.4 mills was raised to 16.9 mills last night. Last year's rate was 21 mills.

Council decided to spend the difference mostly on roads by increasing the original ward road appropriation estimate from $14,000 to $20,000.

One reason for the increase was to take care of roads not completed last year in a $40,000 program made possible by a Provincial Government grant. This work must be undertaken before anything else, council ruled. Sum of $12,000 was place in the estimates in a special road fund.

On motion by Councillor George Austin, the council decided to pay $2,014 as the municipality's share of a Royal Jubilee Hospital isolation ward debt.

Citizens Reporting Traffic Violations

VICTORIANS have apparently become alarmed at the ever increasing number of traffic violations and have turned "policeman" in their efforts to curb further mishaps.

In the space of a few short hours yesterday, three alert citizens reported the licence numbers of cars for intoxication of drivers, reckless driving, and driving with obstructed vision.

City police traced the registered owners of the cars and cautioned the drivers for their actions.

May 11 Day Set by West To End Berlin Blockade

NEW YORK, May 3 (CP).—A Western powers' timetable for lifting the Berlin blockade and opening East-West efforts to settle the over-all German problem today was delivered to Russia, an authoritative diplomatic source said today.

JAKOB A. MALIK

The next move, he indicated, is up to Jakob A. Malik, Soviet deputy foreign minister representing Russia, in the series of top-secret talks held here since February 15 with Philip C. Jessup, United States ambassador-at-large.

Malik answered "no comment" to all questions about a possible meeting.

The source said there was a possibility of a meeting tonight among Malik, Jessup, Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain and Jean Chauvel of France. The last two, delegates to the United Nations, were expected to be brought into the talks for the first time.

The three Western diplomats met Monday. From that conference, the source said, emerged a joint declaration on ending the transport restrictions around Berlin imposed last Summer and convening a meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers to review the whole problem of postwar Germany.

Speculation among informed circles, based on indications that the Western powers would be ready to have a Foreign Ministers' conference starting the last week of this month, set these dates for major developments:

1. May 11—Lifting of the blockade.
2. May 25—Opening of the Foreign Ministers' meeting.

The source said it was expected the meeting would be held in Paris.

Alaska to Get Radar Group

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP).—The U.S. Air Force is strengthening its warning system in Alaska.

It announced today that the 531st Aircraft Control and Warning Group is being moved to Elmendorf air force base at Anchorage, Alaska, from McChord air force base at Tacoma, Wash.

End of Prisoner Transfers to City For Appeals Sought by B.C. Police

British Columbia police have asked Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer to seek an end to transferring prisoners from Oakalla jail to Victoria for hearing of appeals against sentence or conviction, it was learned yesterday.

Such a move, it is understood, will require a change in the Criminal Code of Canada.

This was one outcome of an investigation into the escape of three prisoners from a C.P.R. boat April 17 as the men were being taken back to Oakalla prison after appearing before the Appeal Court in Victoria.

Police feel that many prisoners who have no hope of gaining anything by making an appeal choose to ask for one when the court is sitting in Victoria so that they will have an opportunity to escape.

DO IT DELIBERATELY

One police official, who declined to be named, said yesterday: "They do it deliberately, just so that they will have a chance to escape. It's enormously expensive and dangerous to police personnel."

Legal men recalled yesterday that when Chief Justice Gordon McGregor Sloan was attorney-general he tried to get the Federal Minister of Justice to change the law so that a judge of the Appeal Court could be sent to Vancouver to hear prisoners asking leave to appeal.

At present prisoners have the right to appear before the court or a justice of the court wherever the court is sitting, with the result that prisoners planning to escape chose their appeals when the court is sitting in Victoria.

Reports were current yesterday that the investigation into the recent escape showed that Oakalla officials knew the prisoners had been planning an escape and had failed to notify the conducting officers.

TWO OFFICERS

It was acknowledged that there should have been two officers conducting the prisoners instead of one.

The constable in charge of transporting prisoners, according to police regulations, is supposed to wait for assistance before taking them from their cell on the Victoria-Vancouver boat.

This the constable failed to do with the result that he was overpowered when he opened the cell and the prisoners escaped.

They are still at large.

Plans Declared Definite Princess to Visit Pope

ROME, May 3 (AP)—Vatican sources said today plans for Pope Pius to receive Princess Margaret Rose "are now quite definite," though the date has not yet been set.

British Protestant leaders objected to the possibility of such a meeting before the 18-year-old princess flew to Italy last Wednesday for a [illegible] developed in London.

"We feel that any meeting between a member of the Royal Family of this Protestant state and the head of the Catholic Church would be improper," said Secretary J. A. Kensit of the British Protestant Truth Society. "We thought that point had been settled long ago, when Britain broke away from the Roman Church."

Kensit said: "We still hope there is some mistake in the announcement."

Princess Margaret plans to come to Rome Thursday. She arrived at Sorrento aboard an Italian navy corvette today from the Island of Capri. She and her party visited Pompeii this afternoon.

Pope Leo XIII received Edward VII early in the 20th century in the first meeting of a British King and a Pope since the Reformation. King George V and Queen Mary were received by Pope Pius XI in 1923.

Kaye Performs In London After Crash

LONDON, May 3 (AP). — Danny Kaye, American film and stage comedian, was hurt today in an automobile accident while returning from a visit to George Bernard Shaw and performed under a big handicap tonight.

He couldn't wave his arms.

The red-headed Brooklyn comedian was billed for a two-hour-long show before a full house at London's Palladium Theatre. Returning from Ayot St. Lawrence, where Shaw lives, Kaye suffered injuries to his side when his automobile was in collision with another car.

SUFFERING PAIN

A doctor bandaged his side, but the actor was still suffering shock and some pain during his first show. He performed for 15 minutes, then rested for a time. Later he finished the show with his arms hanging at his sides. Old hands in the show business pronounced the performance "very rough."

During the intermission Kaye went to Middlesex Hospital, where X-rays showed bad bruises but no broken bones. He returned to the theatre and did the full second show of fast action without a break. This time the old hands said he was "absolutely super."

Eight Planes In Search For Lost Pair

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP)—Search planes skimmed through narrow valleys today in the hunt for Pilot William D. Grant of Vancouver and a nurse-passenger, Miss Sheila Cure of Cardston, Alberta.

They disappeared last night on a flight from Penticton, B.C., following an aerial holiday which took them to Cardston, Alberta.

Eight aircraft, including two R.C.A.F. Lancaster bombers, started the search at dawn for the little yellow fleet Canuck plane, owned by the Vancouver Aero Club.

Grant, 30-year-old ex-R.C.A.F. flyer and veteran member of the Aero Club, was last seen late Monday circling Manning Park, 55 miles west of Penticton. It was snowing at the time.

"The plane appeared in trouble," said a forest worker. "It circled, then turned back toward Penticton. The weather was grim."

Miss Cure, 28, was returning from a holiday spent with her parents at Cardston. She was due to return to General Hospital here May 16.

Provincial Police patrols and forest workers joined the search during the day, breaking through heavy timberlands, over old logging roads and snow-filled passes.

Truman Group Dealt Defeat

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—The Wood bill, retaining most of the provisions of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act, was approved by the House of Representatives tonight on a 217 to 203 roll-call vote which dealt the Truman administration a smashing defeat.

Some further parliamentary manoeuvring was in store before the bill could clear the House and go to the Senate.

But a coalition of Southern Democrats and Northern Republicans bent on retaining the Taft-Hartley law largely intact was jubilant.

Conversely the administration forces, which sought repeal of the Taft-Hartley law and revival of the old New Deal Wagner Act in modified form, were plunged into gloom.

Before the roll call vote, the House had tentatively approved the Wood bill on a non-record tally of 210 to 196.

The measure had been offered by Representative John Wood (Dem., Ga.).

Previously the House defeated 211 to 183 a compromise bill, put forward by the Democratic leadership.

Collision Kills Two Families

BEAUMONT, Calif., May 3 (AP) — A crash between a light sedan and a hay truck wiped out two families today, claiming six victims in all.

The victims:

William, 26, and Sue Byles 21, of Long Beach, and her son, Michael James McNickle, three.

Everett, 34, and Freda Stockwell, 34, of Compton, and their son, Jimmy, four.

Only Stockwell and his son survived the crash, and both succumbed during the morning.

All six were occupants of a light car which collided with a truck.

Settle Wages At Tulsequah

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP). — A break in the 18-month deadlock between British Columbia gold mine operators and the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (C.I.O.) came today with the signing of a new agreement at the Polaris Taku Company's Tulsequah mine.

Ken Smith, union district secretary, said a new contract boosts the basic wage rate of 170 miners from $8.38 to $9.04 per shift. A 60-cent service bonus sought by the union will not be granted, company officials said.

Coalitionists Choose Brown

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP) —Don Brown, member of the Legislature for Vancouver Burrard, will contest the seat for the Coalition in the provincial election, June 15.

McRae Named As Candidate

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., May 3 (CP).—John Duncan McRae, 33-year-old business man and former Canadian naval officer, was nominated tonight as Coalition candidate for Prince Rupert Provincial riding at a joint Liberal and Progressive Conservative convention.

Clarification of Soviet Aim Expected in Short Time

OTTAWA, May 3 (CP).—Russia quite probably will lift its blockade of Berlin within a week or ten days, a high External Affairs Department official said today, but that wouldn't necessarily mean an end of the cold war.

Allied-Russian conferences on Berlin "are coming to a head," he said, and it should be clear within less than two weeks whether the blockade move would represent a genuine Soviet desire to effect a German settlement or just another tactical move designed to curb Allied plans for a separate Western Germany.

In the meantime, the Allied world's experts are "keeping their fingers crossed."

It is possible, the official said, that the elimination of the blockade could be the prelude to a revival of Big Four conferences on a German peace.

Foresee Tests To Convert Salt on Sea

EL CENTRO, Cal., May 3 (UP).—Secret government installations in the Imperial Valley are causing new reports here that attempts to convert the Salton Sea into a reservoir of fresh water may be made in the future.

The United States Atomic Energy Commission has denied that it intends to use the Salton Sea installations for any such purpose, but it has been suggested that if any large scale conversion of salt water to fresh ever is attempted, then atomic energy might be applied.

Salton Sea is about 40 miles long and 12 miles wide and is located some 35 miles north of El Centro at one of the lowest points in the United States. Its bottom is 273.5 feet below sea level, compared with 279.6 in Death Valley, lowest point in the country.

RICH VALLEY

As of now, the sea serves as a drainage "pond" for waters from the Imperial Valley irrigation district. In this valley, one of the richest in the world, there are 5,219 farms, which turn out about $96,000,000 in crops each year. The irrigation water now comes from the Colorado River.

Waters from the Salton Sea cannot be used for irrigation because they soon become salty—slightly more than salt water. However, the reports here say that the sea might be used as an "experiment sea," and if successful then sea water could be pumped the 45 miles from the Gulf of California and converted into fresh.

BOON TO COAST

Such an unlimited supply of irrigation water not only would be a boon to the Imperial Valley, but to the entire West Coast, including San Diego and Los Angeles, both of which obtain water from the Colorado River, some 300 or more miles away, it was pointed out. The technique, of course, could be used on the East Coast as well.

The trick of turning salt water into fresh is not new. During the last war, special devices were issued to American servicemen to be used in emergency. For instance, the entire supply of cooking and drinking water for more than 30,000 Army and Navy personnel in Iwo Jima was produced by various types of distillation units.

The cost was about $5 a pint, which considering the emergency, was cheap enough. Such a cost would be prohibitive for irrigation purposes, but the Imperial Valley farmers, if they ever were cut off from their Colorado River supply, might pay $5 or more a pint to keep their now fertile land from turning back to the desert it was years ago.

Fire on Ammunition Ship in Montreal Highlights Strike Now in 34th Day

By The Canadian Press

A brief fire scare aboard a strike-bound, ammunition-loaded ship in Montreal Tuesday centred attention on that port on the 34th day of the strike called by the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.).

The short-lived blaze, discovered by longshoremen, came only a few hours after an official warning came from Ottawa that C.S.U. members who strike in ports abroad are violating the Canada Shipping Act.

The fire broke out among sacks on the deck of the freighter Tricape, owned by the Triton Steamship Company of Montreal. It was within eight or ten feet of a hold where ammunition, destined for China and Pakistan, was loaded. A harbor policeman said there was suspicion the blaze may have been deliberately started.

Exact cause of the outbreak was not immediately known. Only ship's officers were aboard, directing loading of the ammunition cargo.

The C.S.U. crew joined the strike when the Tricape arrived from New York last week.

Firemen from a Montreal waterfront station had the blaze under control within a few minutes.

On other fronts [illegible] two widely separated ports reversed their previous stand of refusing to work strike-bound ships.

Word of the return to work of dockworkers came from Saint John, N.B., and Avonmouth, England, their move in line with that taken recently in some West Indies ports.

GRAIN TIED UP

A survey of Montreal Harbor showed about 8,500,000 bushels of grain stored, said to be the greatest amount in many seasons at this time of year. The port's capacity is 15,000,000 bushels.

A sister ship of the fire-visited Tricape was reported in the news from Brisbane, Australia, where the striking 30-man C.S.U. crew of the freighter Tridale said they had been "fined" a total of $1,000 by the company.

A company spokesman in Montreal said the crew had forfeited 14 days' pay, amounting to about $2,100. The men ended a 14-day stay in prison for disobeying lawful commands.

"MOVINGEST" PEOPLE

Victorians may soon be laying claim to being the "movingest" people in Canada.

Officials in charge of registration of provincial voters said yesterday they were "amazed" to discover that at least 30 per cent of the population of Greater Victoria has changed residence in the past year.

They stated their estimate was conservative and added that 800 people a month are moving into the area from outside.

"They're moving around like a bunch of ants," said one official.

Last minute changes of address during the past week have kept registration officials busy day and night trying to keep their lists up to date.

Wismer Backs Sloan's Plan For Addicts

Attorney-General Gordon Wismer declared yesterday he agreed with Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan's condemnation of methods of treating sex perverts and drug addicts

Addressing 300 delegates at the second biennial western regional conference on social work at the Empress Hotel Monday night, Chief Justice Sloan said chances of curing drug addicts by jail sentences were "practically negligible"

He said there was need for a special institution run by medical doctors, psychologists, psychiatrists and social workers with the aim of reclaiming addicts and perverts to normal life

Such an institution, he said, would more than pay its own way

"I agree with everything the Chief Justice has said," Mr Wismer commented

"As I have stated before, this is primarily a Federal problem and there is a special committee of civil servants and specialists studying the problem at Ottawa"

Mr Wismer said he had expected Legislation dealing with the problem to be introduced in the Federal House this Spring and suggested that the early adjournment had probably postponed action until the Autumn session.

Are Parents Wrong? Maybe—At 92

The elderly gentleman, said Miss Ann DuMoulin during a speech before the western regional conference of social workers here, was 92 and almost totally deaf.

But he was a nice example of the improved outlook such a meeting place for elderly people as Vancouver's Gordon Neighborhood House, can bring about in the aged and lonely

"He came into the House recently," said Miss DuMoulin, "just in time to see some elderly ladies dancing the military two-step"

"I don't dance," he quavered

"That's too bad," shouted a staff member

"Parents always told me never to smoke, drink or dance," added the old gentleman.

He took another look at the dancers

Contesting Lawyers Get Stiff History Homework

Appeal Court yesterday assigned contesting lawyers stiff doses of history homework before buckling down to decide for the first time whether being a Peeping Tom is an offence in Canadian law.

After reserving judgment on the case that brought the issue to a head, the court instructed the lawyers on both sides to submit final arguments in writing after finding out.

1. Whether a statute of Edward III has been invoked in England to allow arrest without a warrant in such cases

3 Whether the statutes have been [illegible] the two original British Columbia colonies or the united colony in 1866 or before.

3. How two sections in the Criminal Code of Canada originated.

4. If the same two sections are in force in England, whether any decisions or interpretations have been based on them.

The appeal was launched by Bernard Frey seeking to reverse a dismissal last January by Mr Justice A. M. Manson. He is suing Stephen Fedoruk, Jack C. Watt and Richard P. Stone for malicious prosecution and false arrest.

The suit followed the 1947 quashing by the Appeal Court of his Richmond police court conviction for peeping at night through a window at Mr. Fedoruk's mother The other two defendants are Provincial Police officers.

A. E Branca is representing Mr Fedoruk and the police officers, H R Bray, K.C., and Neil M. Fleishman are representing Frey

Feet-on-Desk Attitude Censored Here

"Our 'feet on the desk attitude' toward freedom is a thing of the past, and armchair strategy is now out of place," Dr. Oswald Jefferson, of Seattle, told the Kiwanis Club yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

Speaking on "Freedom Is Our Business," Dr. Jefferson emphasized that religion must play an important role in efforts to maintain freedom "as we know it"

There were strong forces throughout the world today, he observed, that "are out to destroy our freedom."

He urged that "our enthusiasm toward our freedom be as strong as that held by those who are opposed to us," and noted that "our freedom is something new"

"There is nothing new about socialism," he continued, "even Plato talked about it."

His address was held in connection with "United States-Canada Goodwill Week," observed annually by Kiwanis Clubs throughout the two countries.

Dr. Jefferson concluded his talk with the warning that "complacency is our greatest enemy."

He was introduced by Fred Cabeldu and thanked by Walter Jeune

Lesson To Be Drawn From Civic Budget

PERHAPS the chief lesson taught by this year's civic budget is the shortcomings of haphazard financing. The spectacle of aldermen groping desperately amid a maze of unrelated figures, chopping and changing without regard for any integrated plan of operation, is not reassuring. Admittedly the situation posed by the need for a higher mill rate was not of the present council's making, but unless methods are changed it is likely to be repeated again next year.

Poor civic management over previous years led to the impasse facing aldermen in striking the 1949 mill rate, together with the current high costs that inflation presses on municipal as well as private affairs. A provisional mill rate of 53 has been set, which if not unexpected in view of the growth of the area and its requirements, is nevertheless the highest in civic history and one that will fall heavily enough on the taxpayer.

It is not surprising that city merchants are opposed to the introduction of a business tax, about whose details aldermen seem none too clear in any case. Business is burdened as it is with provincial and Federal taxes which though passed on to the consumer tend to stifle sales. Merchants already pay licence fees to the city. Another levy would add unduly to the load being carried, and any deterrent to successful operation would reflect adversely on the prosperity of the community at large.

The suggestion of a business tax, it should be noted, is supernumary to the budget provisionally adopted by the City Council. No revenue from such a source appears necessary to keep within the bounds of the mill rate decided upon. If this is a case of looking ahead the Council would be better advised to train its guns on the Provincial Government and endeavor to secure a bigger share of sales tax returns. This tax was instituted at the original behest of municipalities in a desire to be relieved from all costs of education, now a major factor in civic budgets. This relief has been forthcoming only in part, since the province retains two-thirds of the tax yield for its own expedient purposes. Were sales tax revenues distributed on the fifty-fifty basis which would be more equitable in view of the enlarged returns, the mill-rate scramble of this week would have been substantially lessened.

Nevertheless the problem of the future as it concerns civic financing would seem to hinge on better overall planning. A long-range approach to the conduct of the city's business, with various needs dovetailed as part of an integrated whole, is badly overdue. If this requires complete revision of the administrative setup, including perhaps the introduction of the city-manager form of operation, that aspect should be carefully considered. Victoria now functions on too big a scale to carry on a hand-to-mouth municipal existence.

Foreign Language Groups Invitation to Moscow

STATEMENTS made before the County Court in Victoria that there exist throughout the Dominion branches of an organization known as the Federation of Russian-Canadians sharpen the need for watchfulness against any attempts to use foreign language groups in Canada as a medium for Communist infiltration. However well-intentioned their beginnings may be, there is always a danger of groupings of people whose origins are in Russia and satellite states falling gradually under Communist domination later. That is how the Cominform works, and there is ample evidence of its subtle tactics in North America.

Because of early language difficulties and a natural hankering for the society of others from the land of their birth, it is understandable that new Canadian settlers of foreign antecedents should tend to drift together. Under Canadian laws there is nothing wrong with that. Nevertheless the sometimes difficult process of assimilation can be retarded by the growth of racial and national groups, and in a united Canada it would be better if there were no Russian-Canadians, or Polish-Canadians, or any hyphenated Canadians. The sorry situation in the Kootenay districts would not have occurred had many of the Doukhobors not formed themselves into tight colonies perpetuating their former mode of living rather than adopting that of Canada.

It has been stated that the Federation of Russian-Canadians exists for cultural pursuits and social intercourse; that its members meet to study Russian and Polish music and literature. A member of the Victoria branch has said, however, that they also discuss international affairs, and from that it could be a short even if unwitting step to associations susceptible to Communist influence. The Cominform is ever on the lookout for cells in which to germinate the seeds of disruption.

LIBERALS AND CONSERVATIVES

Sir,—With his usual keenness in his search for truth Mr. James Moyes wants to know the difference between a Conservative and a Liberal in Canada's current political situation.

In the reign of John A. Macdonald, under which I was born (we were either Grits or Tories then), I was taught that all mankind was divided into two classes. Conservatives meant the conservers, builders and all loyal citizens who put the welfare of the land that cherished them ahead of all other considerations. The other class meant everybody who sold or dispersed the products and traditions of their country for immediate or personal gain. In short, builders versus salesmen and wreckers . . .

As to the applicability of the old names to present-day parties, I see no need for change. Mankind is still divided into two classes, the conservers and builders on the one hand, and the wreckers on the other . . .

ANOTHER VIEW

Sir,—When Mr. Bracken was finally won over to take the leadership of Conservatives in Canada, it was evident he did not quite like what the name stood for in those days, so he got a tow line (Progressive) attached in front of it, proving that he felt the name had lost its political vitality as a word, and needed some adjustment to bring it up to modern requirements; but he might just as well have cut off the tail—"vatives"—because the real value and vital energy of the name lies dormant in the middle, and is only now coming into its own as Nature's greatest element of power.

It is only now coming to be realised what a mighty part conserving is going to play in the future development of the world, assisted by increased knowledge and scientific discovery of latent energy which lies hidden everywhere around us . . . It is now no longer, "Will you be conservative?"; but "How can humanity afford to be anything but conservers; working out scientifically the salvaging of all that must be conserved?"

ANIMAL WEEK

Sir,—This week being called "Animal Week," and having read the tribute by Mayor Percy E. George in The Colonist, referring to animals as "often man's best friend," I feel I cannot pass up this opportunity without protesting the growing restrictions with regard to having one's "best friend" live and travel with one.

Landlords are increasingly adamant about tenants having pets. (What a dreary life without them!) And some "monster" has, or "monsters" have, instituted prohibition of even so much or so little as a lovebird accompanying travellers on the trains and boats. It was acceptable previously, if the owner had accommodation to himself, which is feasible. Luckily one can travel through United States with one's dogs.

Surely pets should be given the same consideration as human beings (so-called) and only if dangerous or ill-behaved, kept in isolation.

Can nothing be done to restore the erstwhile welcome given to animal-lovers with their faithful friends?

PROVINCIAL ELECTION

Sir,—At the last provincial election, the three members for Victoria were selected from the Liberal Party. A vacancy now occurs through the resignation of Hon. John Hart. As the Conservative Party has given loyal support to the Coalition since its formation, I consider that it is entitled to one representative, and trust that a candidate be nominated for the coming contest.

"Cities and Thrones . . ."

Cities and Thrones and Powers,
Stand in Time's eye,
Almost as long as flowers,
Which daily die:
But, as new buds put forth,
To glad new men,
Out of the spent and unconsidered Earth
The Cities rise again.

This season's Daffodil,
She never hears,
What change, what chance, what chill,
Cut down last year's;
But with bold countenance,
And knowledge small,
Esteems her seven days' continuance
To be perpetual.

So Time that is o'er-kind,
To all that be,
Ordains us e'en as blind,
As bold as she:
That in our very death,
And burial sure,
Shadow to shadow, well-persuaded, saith,
"See how our works endure!"

Thinking Aloud

". . . . of shoes—and ships—and sealing wax—of cabbages and kings."

By TOM TAYLOR

I HAVE the greatest admiration for Sir Walter Scott, but I wish he weren't so long-winded. I took a notion the other evening to reread "The Talisman" and check on my schoolboy memories of Richard and the courtly Saladin. It is that long since last I read Scott's tale of the Crusaders. I didn't get very far, no further than the knight who took about three pages to travel a few hundred yards. At that pace I figured the Summer would be over before I met up with Saladin again, so I laid the book aside.

The fault is not Sir Walter's; he wrote for people who had patience and a love for circumlocution. Or perhaps I just wasn't in the right mood for the Abbotsford laird. I hope that was it.

TALKING about books, or a book rather, I chanced recently to note how the public library staff cope with inebriated patrons. They are not bothered very much with gentlemen of that ilk, but when one does intrude they treat the situation calmly. Leave him alone—that's the method, unless of course he becomes too obstreperous. The afternoon I was there a chap who had imbibed too freely was poking in a corner behind one of the racks, in search of some book or other and muttering inanely after the fashion of his kind. He caused no excitement until he decided to leave. It was then a desire to hold the stage apparently overcame him, for he struck a pose on shaky legs and demanded loudly of all and sundry: "What has Bernard Shaw got that I haven't got, eh?"

Not being smart I was as bereft of an answer as anyone else. It wasn't until long after I realized I might have replied, "Ninety years!"

THE new publicity bureau building on the Causeway should be handy for tourists, who can't miss it as they come up Government Street to town. It has taken a year longer to get it built than was anticipated, but better late than never. I fancy George Warren and his staff will be happy to be in a home of their own.

It's a pity, though, that the building is squeezed the way it is between the end of the harbor wall and the comfort station. The perspective as you approach it walking south is anything but inviting.

MEN at work. I wrote a piece last year about these giant mechanical syringes that create bedlam when breaking concrete. They're back again and still without silencers. Unfortunately, too, the weather isn't conducive to working with a bare torso, and so I miss the aesthetic vision of muscles rippling to the rat-tat-tat of the hammer. That made up for the noise.

I nearly missed something else. Buses have a perverse habit of changing their routes when old car rails are being torn up, and had it not been for the kindness of a stranger who put me wise, I'd still be standing on a certain corner waiting for the bus that didn't come

A NICE old lady dropped in to see me the other morning. She had a very good point to make, one which I couldn't answer. Briefly, it was this: In Victoria as elsewhere these days store fronts have been streamlined and prettied up, and new offices laid out all slick and shiny and comfortable. Inside they are the last word in modern gilt and gingerbread. All day the employees do their work in a soft plush atmosphere. Then at 5 or 6 o'clock many of them are forced by the housing shortage to go home to some dark dingy room that takes the gilt completely off the gingerbread.

The nice old lady thought it didn't make sense that people should work in luxury and live in drab discomfort.

QUICK, Watson, the dictionary! That is a Wall Street Journal exclamation, and no wonder. You know how confusing the English language can be, or rather how North America has put single words to manifold uses with bewildering results. Get a load of this, as that journal might say if it were practising what it comments on. I quote:

Take the word "fast" for instance. We can really work it! Witness: "He seemed to be a fast friend but he turned out to be a fast worker looking for a fast dollar, insinuating himself into the house so he could steal. Caught in the act, he bound his friend fast to a chair and took all his money. The poor penniless victim may be in for a terrible fast."

Again, take the word "bolt". Give a listen. "His stock was short a bolt of cloth. It was not his habit to bolt the door, but to bolt his lunch and hurry back before another clerk could grab something and bolt away with it."

Now, all this might sound quite simple to an American, but what does it mean to a foreigner who does not understand the many-sided nature of an American English word? What, for instance, would he get out of this: "My brother, a bull in a china shop if ever there was one, tries to bull his way out of everything. But he was caught in the bull market, and now is reduced to a plain harness bull on the police force?"

And how would he react to, "He was a flat failure as a singer, living a flat, profitless existence, singing flat notes in a cold-water flat?"

Britain's Health Plan Bogs Down

By EUGENE C. FULLIAM
North American Newspaper Alliance

MANCHESTER.—It is too early to determine just how much the general health of the British people will be improved by socialized medicine, but it is certain the cost is staggering. Also the irritations and abuses already apparent are enormous. As a palliative for the excessively high taxes and rigid austerity which the Socialist Government has levied on the people, socialized medicine has been sold to the public as a "free" service. In a sense it is free—because anybody, poor or rich, can have it by applying to a doctor or a dentist.

But is is anything except free. It is costing $100 for every adult person in Britain. The employee pays $50 a year in weekly levies and the employer pays the other $50. Even this high tax doesn't begin to meet the over-all cost. Aneurin Bevan, Minister of Public Health, says socialized medicine already has cost 40 per cent more than the original estimate. And Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, advised Parliament that the cost of the scheme would continue to rise for the next ten years. It will cost in excess of $1,000,000,000 this year.

* * *

Manchester is one of the world's great industrial cities. Liverpool is England's greatest port. I talked to dock workers in Liverpool and textile workers in Manchester. They think the idea of a free medical service is fine, but they don't like the way socialised medicine is working.

"Here I am with a tooth wanting to come out," a dock worker told me, "and I goes to a dentist and his girl tells me I can see the dentist in three weeks, maybe it will be four. I tells her my tooth aches. She is very sorry but as I am leaving she lets me know if I come back tonight after office hours maybe the dentist will be able to take my tooth out. And then I am wanting to know how much that will cost after hours and she says it will be £1 ($4). Now is that free medicine when my tooth is wanting to come out so bad?"

In Manchester, the wife of a mill supervisor broke her glasses. She is very near-sighted and needs her glasses constantly. She applied for a new set of lenses and was told it would take at least six months before she could get them. Her husband talked to the plant manager who was going to Paris that week. He took along the broken lenses and got a new set in 24 hours while he was in Paris.

"Oh, it's free, all right, if and when you can get any part of it," this disillusioned supervisor said.

Deaths from pneumonia in Manchester rose sharply this past Winter because victims could not get prompt attention from a doctor. I find this same situation has been true in almost every industrial city in England. Doctors' offices are constantly crowded with self-diagnosed patients who have everything from corns to cancer. It is utterly impossible for a doctor always to see the person who is critically ill and needs emergency attention. Because of the flood of patients at his office, the doctor has little or no time for house calls.

Here is the way the scheme works: Each person selects his own doctor or dentist and registers his name. He starts making his weekly payments. Everybody, both men and women, who makes more than $8 a week in wages pays $1 a week to the plan. The employer pays another $1 a week. For this the patient is entitled to free medical service, including maternity expenses, operations, plastic surgery, eyeglasses, necessary wigs, medically prescribed corsets, dentures, drugs and anything else the doctor or dentist thinks a person needs for health.

So many thousands of people have demanded dentures, wigs, glasses and corsets that it will be 18 months to two years before factories can make enough to supply all the orders. Millions of working-class people never have been in a dentist's office. Literally hundreds of thousands are being cured of unsuspected ailments; but other hundreds of thousands are developing imaginary diseases, the treatment of which is driving the doctors crazy and bogging down the whole scheme.

* * *

Despite the abuses and the irritations, there is no question but that the working classes of Britain were in desperate need of greatly expanded medical services. Whether or not the plan now in effect will shake down to a workable system, nobody can say; but it is certain that some form of health services for the masses on a weekly insurance basis has come to stay in Britain. However, like all other schemes of a socialist state, Britain's new socialised medicine is shot through and through with useless red tape, duplicated effort and unnecessary controls and restrictions, all of which increase the cost and reduce efficiency.

Must We Go Faster?

(From The Ottawa Citizen)

EVERYONE who has been fighting a rearguard action against the age of speed will probably read with profound regret the announcement that McGill University is initiating research into jet propulsion. The authorities concerned estimate that eventually about $325,000 will be spent on this project designed to make people get a move on a little quicker. But why should not a few thousand of these dollars be spent in discovering how to slow people down?

As things stand, machines, from bicycles to jet propelled airplanes, seem to be going at a fast enough clip already. Every motorist would agree that all drivers except himself go far too quickly. Research in how to drive faster is unnecessary. Even small children on scooters nowadays travel at a pace which must prevent them from enjoying the passing scenery. Cyclists, especially when they see some intrepid pedestrian crossing their path, can whirl past their victims before the pedestrian even hears them coming—which must make the modern cyclist supersonic.

Yet traveling at a high speed is an unpleasant way to move. Travel, if properly conducted, can be among the most relaxing of pleasures. But it should be leisurely. A motorist and his passengers should concentrate not on the white line in the centre of the road, but upon the world around them.

What leisure can there be in jet propelled travel? Surely if the scientists wish to make humanity happy instead of efficient, they would set to work to invent machines that make movement as slow as possible.

Accident-Prone Drivers

(From The Edmonton Journal)

SOME drivers of motor vehicles appear to become involved in accidents oftener than others do. They are called "accident-prone" drivers, and New York State has decided to do something about them.

Effective next September 1, motorists in that state who have figured in three or more accidents in an eighteen-month period will be required to take another driving examination.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey, when he signed the bill recently, described it as "an important measure for highway safety." The New York Herald Tribune quotes him as follows: "It has been the considered finding of students of the subject that as much as 40 per cent of accidents occurring on the highways are due to drivers who can be considered 'accident-prone.'"

The Alberta Government has not yet got around to the examination of drivers before granting them official licences to drive, let along even thinking about "accident-prone" drivers as a possible menace.

"Safe as the bank," returned the miner. "There's nothing to be afraid of. Those ropes are guaranteed to last 12 months, and this one ain't due to be renewed until tomorrow."

LIBERALS believe they should spend the people's money. Conservatives believe the people should spend their own money. The C.C.F. believes nobody but the Government should make money. Social Credit followers believe the people should receive money without having earned it. . . . The more arguments a man wins, the fewer friends he has. . . . The man who is too proud to beg and too honest to steal can still borrow and forget to repay. . . . The Communist Government in Rumania plans to take over all retail drug stores. There are probably fewer marriages because engaged couples are unable to find suitable accommodation. . . . Looking Back

Through Colonist Files

25 YEARS AGO — Thousands of tourists from the East and Middle West will spend holidays in British Columbia this year instead of in California, because of the outbreak of foot and mouth disease there.

50 YEARS AGO — The Calgary Flour Mills exhibit of bread and cakes is in full swing at the Tea Store on the corner of Government Street and Trounce Avenue.

85 YEARS AGO—Like the House of Assembly, the City Council is finding it difficult to transact business because of apathy on the part of members. There was not a quorum of the Council present for last evening's meeting.

Sleek, New Automobile Models Make Victoria Debut

PLYMOUTH

The Plymouth Special De Luxe four-door sedan shown above is one of the four new Plymouth models. The new sedan and the other three Plymouth models feature wider seats, ample head, leg and shoulder room; greater vision, increased safety and comfort, as well as many new engineering advances in engine design

DODGE

Here's one of the new De Luxe Dodge models. The latest cars offer better vision through higher, wider windshields and a smoother ride as a result of a longer wheelbase and better insulation. The Club coupe shown above is available in eight distinctive body colors in both De Luxe and Special De Luxe series.

FORD

Two series of 1949 Fords are introduced. The Custom series introduces the Tudor sedan shown above, a Fordor sedan and a Club coupe. The De Luxe series includes Tudor and Fordor sedans, Club coupe and a business coupe. They are all styled in an advanced postwar pattern. A new braking system requires 35 per cent less pedal pressure

CHRYSLER

More than 50 improvements have been made to body, engine and chassis in the latest Chrysler models. Shown above is the Chrysler Windsor four-door sedan. Also available in the Windsor series is a Club coupe. All Windsor models have "presto-matic" transmission as standard equipment. There is also the Chrysler Royal series, featuring many models.

Glamor on wheels and on legs will feature Victoria Kinsmen Club's automobile show in the Bay Street Armoury Wednesday to Saturday. It will be the first show of its kind in the city since the war.

To spice the display of streamlined 1949 horsepower from Canada, Britain and the United States, professional singers and dancers from forthcoming Theatre Under the Stars productions will go through their paces against a backdrop of cedar boughs and bunting. Army searchlights will criss-cross the sky.

Health Centre To Be Built

NORTH VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP)—A $500,000 memorial health and recreational centre for children of veterans of both wars is to be built here, it was announced today.

To be known as "Norvana Memorial Centre," the site will be located at Brighton Beach on the North Arm of Burrard Inlet. With assessment value between $75,000 and $100,000. The project is being carried out by Unit 45 of the Army, Navy, and Air Force Veterans of Canada.

Ford Offers Advances In New Cars

Specifically designed to compete in the low price field, the 1949 Ford differs as sharply in its structural and operational features, and represents as great an advancement, appearance and comfortwise over previous corresponding models as did the larger cars introduced by Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, about the same time.

Styled in an advanced, postwar pattern, only five feet three inches high, with low broad contour and full-width interior roominess, the new Ford has a 59 per cent more rigid body and frame structure, has more than 20 square feet of picture window visibility—the windshield alone is 137 square inches greater in expanse—and its new 100 h.p. V-type eight-cylinder engine operates at up to 10 per cent greater economy.

SPACIOUS LOCKER

A newly-designed braking system requires 35 per cent less pedal pressure and the car's deep-deck luggage locker is more than half as spacious again as in the preceding models.

The front wheels are independently suspended, the system combining soft action coil springs and double-action, aircraft type hydraulic shock absorbers. At the rear, similar shock absorbers function with extra long springs which are mounted parallel to the frame and are so designed as to make lubrication of the spring leaves unnecessary.

A new, built-in fresh air ventilation system provides fresh air through ducts with screened inlets at each side of the radiator. The "pressurized cabin" effect permits opening vent windows part way, even on rainy days. When a heater is combined with the system, fresh, warm air is abundantly circulated throughout the inside of the car.

DROP NEUTRAL TONES

Interior-wise, Ford of Canada has broken away from the neutral tones which have been traditional for mass production automobiles. Textured fabrics, popular in fashions and interior decoration, are introduced. Of several new fabrics, the most unusual is a soft grey tweed mixture with a blue stripe which gives the 1949 Ford interiors a freshly tailored look.

Many Big Car Features Highlight New Plymouth

The new Plymouth car was described as "the lowest priced car with the greatest number of big car features in safety, economy, comfort and smart modern appearance," by John C. McGuire, general sales manager, the Chrysler, Plymouth Fargo Division, Chrysler Corporation of Canada, Limited.

First public showing of the new Plymouth models are given today in Victoria.

"These new cars were designed with only one consideration in mind," he continued, "that is the satisfaction of a motorist's basic needs in comfort, convenience, style, beauty and performance. They follow the dictates of good automotive engineering and not the ideas of impractical dreamers."

The new Plymouths have what some reviewers have called a "Continental" look—yet they are roomier than previous models. They are low and wide and possess a fleet appearance. Headlamps are set farther apart in a chrome-glittering front-end and chrome "speed-lines" on the fenders accentuate the car's streamlined appearance. The rear of the car features a "bustle-back" treatment and tail lights sit high on the fenders.

Mr. McGuire pointed out that while the new car's wheel-base has been increased to 118½ inches, its overall length has been reduced six inches for clearance, easier parking and garage storage. Safety rim wheels and super cushion tires are standard on all the new Plymouth models and contribute to safety and comfort. Rear doors are hinged from the centre posts for easier, safer access and exit. All doors are hinged from the forward edge. Redesigned bumpers on lower control arms allow gentler engagement under severe road conditions. Big double-acting airplane type shock absorbers on every wheel give better absorption of road shock, it is reported.

NOISES, DUST REDUCED

Road noises and dust are reduced by thicker, softer body mountings, closer fittings in bodies and sound-deadening materials. Side-sway has been reduced and roadability improved by mounting rear shock absorbers in "sea-leg" fashion, rear shocks are mounted higher for increased road clearance.

Mercury to Enter Competitive Field

DESCRIBED by the makers as "not a new model, but an entirely new automobile," the 1949 Mercury was the first of Ford of Canada's long-heralded postwar passenger lines. The sport sedan is one of two models available, the other being a six-passenger coupe.

Company officials said the 1949 Mercury has been designed in styling performance and luxurious comfort to take its place in a new competitive field. Long, low lines are a feature, the car being only five feet three inches from road to roof, and rear seats a full five feet in width.

New Chrysler Automobiles for 1949 Hailed as Greatest Ever Presented

Wider seats for increased comfort, more streamlined appearance, many new safety features and Chrysler-engineered mechanical improvements all combine to make the new Chrysler "the greatest Chrysler in history in every way," according to John C. McGuire, general sales manager Chrysler, Plymouth Fargo Division, Chrysler Corporation of Canada Limited. "In these cars are motoring improvements that were needed," he continued. "They are improvements that called for imagination, research, good common sense and good taste."

The new Chrysler cars were publicly shown for the first time in Victoria today at the Bay Street Armoury.

Mr. McGuire reported that "we believe we have set a new style in luxury, performance and appearance with this new model. It is the finest product of Chrysler's designing skill and engineering." The wheelbase of the new Chrysler is 125½ inches—four inches longer than in the 1948 models, but the over-hang has been reduced so that the new model is almost six inches shorter than former models, making it easy to park the car or store it in the garage.

The new car's front compartment features a single glare-proof housing for panel instruments to give more arm room and knee room for the front seat passengers. Stretching across the panel is a curved "safety cushion" trimmed to match the car interior. Radio grille, cigar lighter and ash tray are all tastefully incorporated into the panel design. Two front compartment lights operate automatically with the opening of either front doors and they may also be operated with a manual switch for may-reading

"Meteor" Described As New Automobile

FORD Motor Company of Canada, Limited, announce a brand new automobile for 1949 in the low price field, to be known as the "Meteor." It is exclusive to the Canadian market and is distributed by the Mercury-Lincoln-Meteor dealers across the Dominion.

In addition to the two-door custom sedan the Meteor line includes the custom four-door sedan and club coupe, as well as a de luxe series consisting of two-door and four-door sedans, club coupe and business coupe.

Radically New Hillman Minx Makes Appearance

The new 1949 Hillman Minx, which makes its Victoria appearance at the Bay Street Armoury, is radically new in appearance and mechanical features. In addition to ultra-modern streamlining and a wider body with full-width front seat, it features independent front-wheel suspension for smoother riding, opticurve windshield and rear window for extra vision, welded mainframe and chassis for greater safety, no-draught ventilators and a built-in air-conditioning unit for still more comfort.

Grace, Beauty of Design Noted in Pontiac Series

A completely restyled motor car available with a choice of six or eight cylinder engines in certain models, the new 1949 Pontiac was shown today by General Motors Products of Canada Limited.

Pontiac offers Canadian motorists four series for 1949. The Chieftain series is an entirely new concept of functional beauty distinguished by its ultra-styled over-all pattern. The Streamliner series is an extremely advanced rendering of the flowing design factors originally popularized by Pontiac. The Fleetleader Special and Fleetleader de luxe series offer completely redesigned body styles which are wider, lower and more distinctive than anything yet offered in this series.

Both Chieftain and Streamliner Series use a 120-inch wheelbase. The Fleetleader Special and Fleetleader de luxe are mounted on a 115-inch wheelbase.

The Chieftain series offers a sport coupe and Four-door sedan, the latter with either de luxe or standard equipment, with the option of a six or eight-cylinder engine in the de luxe.

Available in the Streamliner series are a two-door sedan coupe, and a four-door sedan coupe in a standard or de luxe, with again the option of six or eight-cylinder engines in the de luxe.

The Fleetleader series offer (special or de luxe) sport coupe two-door sedan, four-door sedan, two-door sedan coupe, four-door sedan coupe and business coupe (special only) with the six-cylinder engine.

FAMED DRIVE OPTIONAL

The famed GM hydra-matic drive is again available as an option at extra cost on certain Pontiac models.

A direct front view of the 1949 Silver Streak Pontiac depicts massive grace and unity of design. Startling in its novelty is the dual bumper effect, created by the massive central grille bar highlighting the radiator grille ensemble.

In silhouette, the new Pontiac appears lower and heavier. The contour of the front fender skirts has been carried straight back to the rear fenders. Lowering of the hood and roof lines by two and one-half inches accents the litheness of the new Pontiac models.

Dancers Pack Ballrooms For "Parade"

The upper and lower ballrooms of the Crystal Garden were thronged with dancers last night at the sixth annual "Paradise of Bands."

Eleven different orchestras and bands, sponsored by the Victoria Musicians' Union, supplied the musical entertainment throughout the evening.

The "Hometowners" were featured in a floor show in the upstairs ballroom, and at the same time the "Cubanaires" were entertaining downstairs.

They switched ballrooms at the conclusion of their shows, and presented a second performance.

Proceeds of the event will go towards charities supported by the Musicians' Union.

Vincent Butler, vice-president of the Victoria Musicians' Union, was in charge of the arrangements for the evening.

Dodge Built On Quality For Comfort

New comfort, economy, safety, and smooth operation are combined with a new distinctive automotive [illegible] Dodge De Luxe and Special De Luxe models, it was reported by A. J. Shaw, general sales manager, Dodge-DeSoto division, of the Chrysler Corporation of Canada, Limited, in introducing the new cars.

The new Dodge De Luxe and Special DeLuxe were publicly shown today for the first time.

There are seven new models in the De Luxe and Special De Luxe class. In both the De Luxe and Special De Luxe series on a 123½-inch wheelbase, there is a Four-Door Sedan and a Club Coupe. Three entirely new models on a 115-inch wheelbase will be produced later. These include a business coupe, a two-door sedan, and a smart new body type—an all-metal "Suburban."

TIME-TESTED FEATURES

Each model incorporated the time-tested Dodge features, in addition to new styling and engineering advances.

In presenting the new models Mr. Shaw pointed out that, "in designing the new Dodge cars, we have kept in mind the basic needs of the car buyer for appearance, performance, safety and economy," he said. "We believe we have met these needs with imagination in research and engineering, and at the same time with common sense. You can still see over the hoods and out the rear windows of these new Dodge cars. You can get in and out with ease, and there is still room for your hat."

In the ancient Roman calendar April was the second month of the year.

Many See Drama Club Presentation

Students of the YMCA Drama Club presented a three-act comedy, "The Optimist," before a capacity audience at the Church of Our Lord Auditorium last night.

The play was produced and directed by Polish actor Julius Rawis-Lesiak, who arrived in Canada nearly a year ago from Germany.

He spent five years in a German concentration camp during the war.

Robert Morrison, program director of the Y.M.C.A., told the audience that this was the first attempt the "Y" had ever made to produce this type of play, and they would in future try to make it an annual affair.

Buyers' Market in Cars Now on the Way Back

The car buyer will be king again in 1949.

That's the word from dealers, who are not sorry about the impending "return to normal," since they still expect to sell all the automobiles which roll off the assembly-line this year.

However, they will have to work a little harder as waiting-lists dwindle to nothing and prospective buyers start choosing colors and asking more questions.

Dealers say demand is slowing almost everywhere, but the change from "sellers' market" to "buyers' market" will be uneven across the country.

Battle Between Liberals, P.C.'s Resumes at Thursday Meeting

After a week-long lull the battle between Liberal and Progressive Conservatives over nomination of a candidate for Esquimalt constituency in the June 15 provincial elections will be resumed when Liberals meet tomorrow night.

Charles Beard, who has held the seat during the past four years, will attend the meeting seeking nomination as a straight Coalitionist. Mr Beard was nominated by Conservatives last time During the sessions of the Legislature he has consistently refused to attend caucuses of either party but recently attended the Liberal convention in Vancouver He insists he is not tied to either party, but is a straight Coalitionist.

MAY BE COMPROMISE

Some sources say the Liberals may nominate Mr Beard as the best compromise candidate to meet insistent demands of Progressive Conservatives that F. V Finland shall be the candidate

A large group of the Conservatives are complaining bitterly that they were "double-crossed" when Mr Beard was nominated in 1945 They claim Esquimalt was a Conservative seat at that time and should have remained so according to the Coalition formula.

Last week they nominated Mr Finland and served notice that they intend to fight to the last ditch to see that he is elected

It is considered possible, also, that the Liberals may select a straight Liberal standard-bearer tomorrow night and fight it out with their Coalition partners, who have so far taken the initiative in an aggressive campaign to win out.

Remaining on the fringe of the fight is Reeve A. I. Thomas of Esquimalt, who claims he will only place his name before a joint convention of both parties

Still another contestant is George F Bonner of Cobble Hill, one-time president of the Esquimalt Liberal Association, who announced last week he will run as a straight "independent."

Trans-Jordan Completes Annexation

AMMAN, Trans-Jordan May 3 (AP)—Trans-Jordan made ready today to receive three representatives from Arab Palestine into the Cabinet, a move implying extension of King Abdullah's rule beyond the Jordan

Annexation of some Palestine Arab territories is regarded here as an accomplished fact, whether it is officially announced or not.

Premier Tewfik El Huda Pasha resigned with the rest of his Government and was ordered by Abdullah to organize a new Cabinet which will include three ministers from Palestine.

Usually reliable sources said two Moslems and a Christian Arab will be chosen.

The old Cabinet arranged to carry on pending the reshuffle It began consultations to carry out the King's instructions

Leopold Keen To Return, Letter Shows

BRUSSELS Belgium May 3 (AP)—Exiled King Leopold made it clear today he wants to return to the throne of Belgium.

In a letter to his brother, Prince Charles, Belgian Regent, the King said:

"I am convinced you are sharing my views that the time has come for a return to constitutional normalcy"

This would mean the end of the regency

This could be done only by Parliament, where a small majority still is opposed to Leopold's return However, national elections to be held by the end of June may change the balance in favor of the King

Leopold surrendered the Belgian forces to the Germans early in the World War and became a prisoner of war His action in this respect has been criticised by many Belgians The King since the war has lived in exile in Switzerland

Luxury Field To Welcome New Monarch

An all-new automobile, low, spacious and distinctively styled, carried the name "Monarch" into a new luxury field of passenger car transportation. The 1949 Monarch, powered by a big 110-h.p V-type eight cylinder engine of new design, is available in the sport sedan [illegible] in a six-passenger coupe model.

Bodies of the new Monarch are markedly spacious. Three adults may ride in comfort on either front or rear seat, the latter being a full five feet in width. Hardware is rugged but gracefully cast and fabrics are refreshingly new

NEW VENTILATION

The car also introduces a specially designed ventilation system which carries a controlled flow of cool, clean air to all parts of the interior. When combined with a heater unit, it provides uniformly warm, fresh air in both front and rear seating compartments. All-round visibility is achieved without sacrifice of structural strength and there is exceptionally large luggage space under the "bustle" back in both models

The Monarch's engine has automatic choke and an automatic "fast-idle" feature to prevent stalling after a cold start. The engine itself is completely insulated from the frame by three rubber-bonded-to-steel mounting units.

The frame of the new car is described by the makers as one of the most rigid yet designed. Resilient coil springs are employed in the front and suspension with airplane-type shock absorbers installed within the springs

B.C.'s Experts Are Told Of U.K. Social Services

The National Assistance Act, which came into operation last July, was termed the coping stone on the structure of social services in Great Britain by John Moss, C.B.E., well-known, London, England, barrister and authority on social security both in England and on the continent.

Addressing social workers at the Western region conference here last night, Mr. Moss said the "new deal for old people" took care of 400,000 persons who otherwise would have remained on outdoor relief and 100,000 people in poor law institutions.

It is now the duty of each county council and each county borough council to provide residential accommodation for the aged, the infirm and others who require care and attention. They also are given tobacco, candy, newspapers and periodicals.

PROVIDE TREATMENT

If an elderly person is ill and requires hospital treatment, the new national health service scheme provides that treatment, as well as dental care where needed.

Residential accommodation is provided in homes, hostels or other establishments at present. Later, accommodations for 25 or 30 will be available in old people's homes where the more active elderly folks could help run the establishment if they wish. For this work they would receive pocket money.

These homes would consist of single or bed-sitting rooms with a communal lounge and communal dining-room. This accommodation would be paid for according to the means of the inmates.

As every person in England and Wales now has a minimum income of $5.20 a week and is allowed one dollar for pocket money, the minimum payment for such accommodation is $4.20. A higher rate must be paid according to means if a local authority home costs $13 or $14 to run per week.

An elderly person can die in an old people's home and leave up to $1,600 in the bank and $1,500 in war savings to relatives, Mr. Moss said.

In addition, local authorities must provide temporary accommodation for persons losing their homes through fire, flood or eviction. Residence qualifications may mean only a few days in a district, Mr. Moss explained.

Toronto Faces Building Halt Across City

TORONTO, May 3 (CP)—A laborers union set tomorrow as deadline for a city-wide construction strike which would tie up 46 projects employing 5,000 men.

Mike Nicols, organizer of the Construction Laborers' Union (A.F.L.), said a strike now in progress would spread to other projects unless the Toronto Builders' Exchange agrees to grant the union a modified closed-shop agreement.

The strike of Toronto building construction workers continued to spread today as 200 laborers and skilled craftsmen walked off their jobs at the new Bank of Nova Scotia site at downtown Bay and King Streets.

"We are ready to tie up all the building in the city," Nicols said.

Citizens' Responsibility To "Old-Timers" Cited

The efforts made to serve "old-timers" at Vancouver's Gordon Neighborhood House were described today by senior house director, Miss Ann DuMoulin, before social workers attending the current Western regional conference in Victoria.

fected by any question of age, the speaker stated.

"But the chance of getting that happiness is."

The community has a responsibility to all those who have reached an age when the burden of life is too great to be borne without assistance, the speaker emphasized.

"Money cannot, by itself, solve the problem," she said.

The hardest adjustment that old people have to make is the acceptance of a new and inferior role as a dependent person whose opinion and advice is no longer of interest or importance, Miss DuMoulin said.

There were 850,000 persons over 65 in Canada today, she stated.

NEED CENTRE AID

From this large segment of the population comes a demand for service from our recreational centres, she added.

"Gordon House has tried to develop this phase of its work."

Also taking part in the discussion on how a community centre serves its older people were Mrs. A. S. Coutts, general supervisor public welfare department, Winnipeg, Man., and Dr. Henrietta R. Anderson, director recreation council, Victoria.

Dr. Anderson emphasized the need of a neighborhood house in Victoria, similar to the Gordon House, with special heed paid to elderly people.

"We have community centres in James Bay and Esquimalt, she said. "But neither of these pays much

NEED BUILDING

Major stumbling block in the way of a Victoria community centre was the great difficulty of finding a suitable building, or even property on which to build, Dr. Anderson stated.

A four-point program for care of the nation's old people was outlined by D. E. Chalmers, director of old-age pension branch, from Regina, Sask.

Mr. Chalmers' four points were:

1. A pension scheme that would guarantee each and every Canadian an adequate monthly income when he had reached a set age.
2. Adequate housing for older people.
3. Full medical coverage for the elderly.
4. Recreational and counseling centres for older people.

Co-operation of the home, school, church, social agencies and the community as a whole was necessary in the development of sound family life, stated Miss K. Phyllis Burns, child welfare division of the Canadian Welfare Council, Ottawa.

New De Soto Four-Door Sedan

Typical of the brilliantly-styled new De Soto cars is the Custom 4-door sedan shown above. Designed to take advantage of all the beauty of modern design, the new De Soto is much roomier inside, yet its overall length, width and height have been reduced for easier handling and parking. The new De Sotos have increased visibility, a more powerful engine and dozens of other improvements.

Basic Needs of Public Declared Met by De Soto

The new DeSoto car is a result of the efforts of Chrysler Corporation engineers and designers to build a car that meets the basic needs of the motoring public, according to A. J. Shaw, general sales manager, Dodge-DeSoto Division, Chrysler Coproration of Canada Limited in publicly announcing the new models.

The new DeSoto models were presented to Victoria today for the first time at the Bay Street Armoury show.

"In designing this new DeSoto car," Mr Shaw said, "our engineers kept in mind constantly the fact that people who drive automobiles want a car that is easy and safe to operate, comfortable and economical. They want a style-fashioned car that will provide low cost, trouble-free motor transportation. We believe the new DeSoto best meets these requirements."

MASSIVE GRILLE

The front end of the new DeSoto is distinguished by a massive chrome grille of the "waterfall" design and a rugged deep-fluted bumper. New-type more illuminating headlamps are set higher and wider apart for increased road illumination. On the hood is a distinctive plastic ornament incorporating the features of DeSoto the explorer after whom the car is named.

The front fenders, almost hood high and distinguished with chrome trim, stream directly back from the front end and finally blend into the widened bodies. Owners will be able to boast about the decorative, chrome-trimmed rear fenders which add considerably to the car's appearance but will not be costly to repair, if necessary.

The back of the car is well balanced with the front-end design. It is of the "bustle-back" type and among its many new features are recessed, chrome-trimmed, license plate holders, and tail lights streaming out from the top of the streamlined rear fenders. The rear bumper is similar to the front in design and provides a protective sweep around the back of the rear fenders.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE

Included in the mechanical improvements incorporated in the new DeSoto are; greater silencer volume of the new air cleaner for quieter engine operation, new accelerator pedal construction with resulting smoother, more positive accelerator pedal action, new heavier clutch over-centre spring for easier clutch disengagement; more rigid connecting links and location of the bell crank on the frame instead of the engine, for easier, more quiet gear shift operation and freedom from "gear shift wobble" on rough roads.

Smoother ride with a minimum of side sway is made possible by "sea leg" shock absorbers at the rear of the car, mounted in the manner of the legs of the letter "A" in new, softer rubber spools, giving the effect of a transverse strut. Front shocks have increased rebound control contributing a feeling of greater stability, especially when driving at a high speed over rough roads.

Uses Light Plane To Round Up Voters

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C., May 3 (CP).—Voters in the wilds of Northern British Columbia know the air age is here.

E. H. Dewitt, deputy registrar of voters, in an effort to round up all possible potential voters for the June 15 Provincial election, last week chartered a light plane.

The plane, piloted by Tom Corless, took off from Prince George, B.C., after arrangements were made to have Indians break the ice on McLeod Lake to enable the pontoon-equipped plane to land.

The flight was a success. Brought back were approximately 50 registrations from the settlements of Fort McLeod and Finlay Forks.

Shown above is the Custom Dodge four-door sedan.

Hillman Minx Designed For Canadians

Across the sea from a land saturated in legends and myths, a ghost came west to steal the spotlight at the Canadian premiere of the sensationally new 1949 Hillman Minx automobile in Toronto recently.

With its entire body and engine clothed in a transparent plastic to reveal all inner construction and mechanism, the "Ghost" Minx proved as genuine as anything, ghostly or material, can be. Seen in this country for the first time, it was built at a cost reputed to be in the neighborhood of $25,000 expressly to show the Canadian public the quality of workmanship built into the new Hillman Minx by the Rootes Group, of England.

"This entirely new automobile has been designed for Canadians and their driving conditions all over the Dominion," stated Sir William Rootes, K.B.E., who journeyed to Toronto for the Canadian premiere.

"Combining so many modern mechanical advancements with up-to-the-minute streamlining," he continued, "it is my belief that the Hillman Minx will soon prove one of the most popular cars of the postwar era on this side of the Atlantic.

"For the first time a popular British light car has been built with a curved windshield and rear window for 30 per cent extra vision," added Sir William. "The chassis and main frame have been welded into one unit of immense strength for greater safety, while a five-inch wider, full-width front seat replaces the customary bucket types for extra roominess and comfort," he went on to say.

In keeping with the concepts of modern styling the headlights, fenders, door handles, and even the door hinges, all merge into the graceful body lines.

Other features incorporated on this new Hillman include the famous "L" head engine which gives up to 35 miles per gallon, independent front wheel coil spring suspension, latest Lockheed hydraulic brakes, one-piece, all-steel top, ultra-light steering mechanism, synchromatic finger-flick gearshift, no-draft ventilating system and a built-in air-conditioning unit.

"Futuramic" Oldsmobile

The 1949 "Futuramic" Oldsmobile announced recently by General Motors of Canada features entirely new body design and greatly increased vision in both the Series "76" (shown above) and Series "88" Company has announced that limited number of Series "88" will be available with the new Oldsmobile Rocket engine—the same high compression, eight-cylinder, valve-in-head engine which has been in process of development for several years

'Futuramic' Oldsmobiles Sport 'Rocket' Engines

Entirely new body designs to all series and introduction of the famed new "Rocket" engine highlight the new 1949 "Futuramic" Oldsmobiles which are now coming off the production lines at the big plant of General Motors of Canada

E. J. Umphrey, director of sales has announced that the new "Rocket" power plant which will be available on a limited number of "Futuramic" series "88's," is the same high-compression, eight-cylinder, valve-in-head engine which General Motors engineers and research experts have had under process of development for several years

CAN BE STEPPED UP

According to Mr Umphrey, the compression ratio of the "Rocket" is 7 25 to 1. With only minor mechanical modifications, this ratio can be stepped up in future models to 12 to 1, as soon as higher octane fuels are available.

"The 'Rocket' engine" Mr Umphrey revealed, "is the most powerful ever installed in an Oldsmobile Its 135 horsepower is an increase of 20 horsepower over Oldsmobile's former eight-cylinder engine"

While the "Rocket" engine is available in the series "88," the series "76" also offers an improved "Big Six" engine

The Futuramic "76" series consists of seven body types These include four-door sedan, de luxe four-door sedan, four-door town sedan, de luxe four-door town sedan, two-door club sedan, de luxe two-door club sedan, club coupe Three body styles are available in the Futuramic "88" series. These are de luxe four-door sedan, de luxe four-door town sedan, de luxe two-door club sedan One of the most conspicuous style changes is evident in the front end. The leading portion of the front fender has been redesigned to accommodate headlamp, parking light and air intake louvres in one attractive element

FRONT SIMPLIFIED

This new arrangement simplifies the frontal appearance and accents the "Futuramic" effect of broadness and lowness. In addition, an entirely new world symbol has been mounted on the forepart of the hood This symbol follows the general design of Oldsmobile's new "Futuramic" emblem.

Both series "76" and "88" have an entirely new Fisher body of "Futuramic" design, with greatly improved vision for all passengers and wider seats for increased riding comfort.

British Bill Sets Status Of Irishmen

LONDON, May 3 (Reuters) The Commons gave first reading today to a complex bill embodying this paradox. The Republic of Ireland is neither "part of His Majesty's Dominions nor a foreign country."

By affirming the "territorial integrity of Northern Ireland, the bill also sets the seal of British law on Irish partition. Northern Ireland is declared to be "both part of His Majesty's Dominions and of the United Kingdom"

ALL PRIVILEGES

Under the bill, citizens of the new Republic who live in Britain will have all the privileges and most of the duties of British subjects. Whether the duties will include military service in the British forces was not known

(During the war citizens of Eire were liable to national service for Britain after two years' residence)

The bill, introduced to meet the situation created by Eire's assumption April 18 of Republican status, provides that:

1. Citizens of the Republic of Ireland will not be treated as aliens by Britain.

2 Irish ships and planes will not be regarded as foreign.

3. Neither in past nor future legislation will expressions such as "foreign" or "foreigners" apply to the Republic of Ireland or its inhabitants

Three-Year Development Put Into 1949 Chevrolets

Product of three years' development work and more than a million miles of engineering research, the 1949 Chevrolet is now on display in Victoria

The latest model Chevrolet has been completely restyled, according to an announcement by General Motors Products of Canada. It is lower wider and more distinctive than any previous series. Not only does the design introduce superior beauty to the lowest-priced ranks, but numerous body and chassis improvements promise to add to Chevrolet's reputation for comfort, safety and convenience

Two series of cars, the Fleetline and Styleline, are included, with de luxe treatment an option in most body types. De luxe cars lay increased emphasis on the styling of fabrics, trim and appointments The lineup shows:

Fleetline—Two and four-door sedans This design is distinguished by the extension of the roof line in an unbroken sweep to the rear Known to the trade as a "fast back," the form achieved great popularity on the 1948 two-door Aerosedan

Styleline—Two and four-door sedans, sport coupe, and special business coupe. Styleline sedans carry the "notch back." Here the curvature of the roof meets the rear deck at the body belt line.

In both styling and performance the 1949 series continues the "big car" aspects that have always been traditional with Chevrolet The design is fresh and substantial-looking without approaching the extreme Greater comfort is reported demonstrable by "ruler and by ride."

The rugged six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine remains fundamentally the same, but refinements will increase appreciably the car's handling ease and owner satisfaction.

Davison Manslaughter Trial Under Way in Assize Court

Manslaughter trial of Raymond Davison, 2827 Irma Street, began before an Assize Court jury yesterday with an all-day parade of Crown witnesses giving evidence against him.

The 26-year-old dental mechanic is charged with the Christmas Eve traffic death of nine-year-old Anne Goldfinch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Goldfinch, 1287 Rudlin Street.

The child was killed when pinned against a rock wall at the intersection of Fernwood Road and Pandora Avenue by a car allegedly driven by Davison.

As the first day of the trial came to an end, Joseph McKenna, Crown prosecutor, indicated he was less than halfway through presenting his case against Davison, and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Wendell B. Farris estimated the trial would last three full days.

MAY VISIT SCENE

At one point in the hearing, J. A. Byers, defending the accused, said he might ask later in the trial to move the court to visit the death scene to help the jury visualize the tragedy.

Mr. Byers opened the argument before the jury was empanelled with an unsuccessful application to have fuller particulars from the Crown. He said he wanted to know if his client was charged with a crime of omission or commission.

Chief Justice Farris refused the application, referring to the preliminary hearing in city police court last January 7 and asking: "How on earth could they give you fuller particulars of their case than that?"

STRESS POINTS

Throughout the day, Mr. Byers kept up a vigorous cross-examination of all witnesses on three main points: Whether the killed girl was on the road or sidewalk before she was struck; why some of the witnesses had added to the evidence they gave during the preliminary hearing; and how a B.C.E.R. bus in front of which the car had passed immediately before hitting the girl fitted into the picture.

Dr. A. E. Gillespie, Royal Jubilee Hospital interne said the girl was dead when brought to the hospital. He described wounds to the stomach, jaw and legs, and identified the girl from a photograph, admitted as a compromise after a heated objection by Mr. Byers.

MOST UNUSUAL

Describing the picture taken after the accident as "a most unusual one" he said "the purpose of the photograph is to prejudice the jury." Chief Justice Farris added: "I don't like the idea of this photograph going in at all, Mr. McKenna."

The photograph was entered as an exhibit after Mr. McKenna suggested cutting away all but the image of the girl's head.

William Duncan, 1715 Leighton Road, told how the blue sedan "shot past" his car and another then failed to make the turn left from Pandora Avenue.

Cross-examined by Mr. Byers, he said he saw no weaving and added that when Davison said "You ain't kidding" when told Duncan was going to phone the police ambulance "I gathered he was perfectly aware something serious had happened."

Allen Jensen, 926 Stafford Street, said he was driving a B.C.E.R. bus towards town, and saw the blue car approaching on Pandora with left signal lights flashing.

SLOWED BUS

He told of slowing the bus to let the car cross in front and watching the car strike the girl, crushing her against the wall. He could not recall whether or not the victim and her companion were on the sidewalk at the time.

At that point, Mr. Byers sought to enter photographs and measurements of the bus as an exhibit, and Chief Justice Farris asked him: "Are you in any way suggesting that this bus was in any way responsible for the accident?"

"I'll come to that in due time, My Lord," Mr. Byers said.

Joyce Buckley, 11, of 1270 Rudlin Street, broke into sobs when asked to recount the accident. She had been walking up Fernwood Road with Anna Goldfinch when the latter was killed.

HEARD CAR

She said she heard the car round the corner but did not see it hit Anne. "I ran across the street, then saw Anne lying on the sidewalk," she said. She added that she was walking in front of Anne on the road, but did not know whether Anne was on the road.

Sheila Knowles, 1751 Duncan Street, said she saw the accident from an aisle seat in the bus. She said the car was moving "very fast" and told of seeing the driver "turning the wheel frantically." She said Anne Goldfinch was struck "just in the centre of the sidewalk."

Noting that she had given "an exact account" of the accident, Mr. [illegible] hearing transcript of her evidence that she had been "panicky" and that it was "hard to describe, it all happened so quickly."

"Your memory has, I take it, become a little sharper with time?" he asked.

HEARD TIRES

Dorothy Tovey, 1340 Johnson Street, said she was walking down Fernwood Road when she heard the squeal of tires and saw the car fail to make the turn, bump against the wall then twist around facing the opposite direction. She did not see the girl hit.

Mrs. Catherine McDonald and her son, Raymond, 652 Oliver Street, said they were in a car behind the bus, and that the blue car was going at a "very high rate of speed."

Harrison John McLean, former Daily Colonist photographer, was flown from Toronto at Crown expense to identify photographs he took at the death scene.

The trial will continue at 11 a.m. today.

Contralto in Success After Shaky Start

Portia White, famed Canadian contralto who appeared in Victoria yesterday is very pretty—much prettier than the Karsh photograph that appears on her advance notices.

Last night, dressed in a soft grey gown, and standing beneath the silent silver organ of the First Baptist Church where her concert was [illegible]

Her stage presence was magnificent, the figure of a young goddess.

When she closed her eyes, proudly bent her head a little to one side and softly sang "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," she had a capacity audience spellbound.

But Miss White has been widely advertised as one of the finest contraltos of the day.

SUPERLATIVES SHAKY

And it is at this point that the superlatives become just a little shaky.

Because Miss White was not too successful with her opening number, "Che faro senzo Euridice," from "Orfeo," by Gluck.

And it was not until the fourth number of the group of German lieder that she began to win back the confidence of her listeners.

An encore in this group, "Der Schmidt," by Brahms, was Miss White's finest effort up to this stage of her concert.

Donizetti's "O Mio Fernando" from "Il Favorita" marked a sort of turning point in the program. The singer's interpretation here was vivid and moving.

GROUP PLEASANT

A group of songs in English was pleasantly done, especially the tender "Do Not Go, My Love" by Hageman. An encore in this group, "A May Day," English air arranged by Deems Taylor, also showed Miss White's voice to advantage.

But it was in the final group of spirituals that Miss White spun a thread of sweet song about her audience and put the superlatives back on a firm basis again.

The consensus of opinion at the [illegible] that Miss White was pretty wonderful.

Everybody hoped that they would hear her again soon—perhaps in a concert hall next time.

But please, Miss White, deal gently with the German lieder, too frail a frame for the powerful tapestry you weave.

Ruth Hill and N. Barry Married at Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI, May 3.—Spring colors were reflected in the tones of bridal attendants' gowns at the wedding on Saturday evening of Ruth Evelyn, only daughter of Mr and Mrs J. Royston Hill and Norman Barry, only son of Mr. and Mrs Norman E. Macready, Port Alberni.

Rev Glen Stevenson performed the ceremony in All Saints' Anglican Church. Pink and white ornamental cherry blossoms predominated in the profusion of flowers used in church decoration.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white lace over heavy white satin, the skirt fashioned en train and with small peplum. A row of tiny buttons trimmed the front of the bodice and matching buttons were used on the lily-point sleeves. Her three-quarter-length veil was held in place by lily of the valley and her shower bouquet was of red roses, white heather and lily of the valley.

The bride, a graduate of Crofton House School, was attended by Rosemary Bicknell, maid of honor, Joan Gilchrist and Maxine Millham, bridesmaids, all from Vancouver, and Clara Levander and Helen Zallo, Port Alberni, made up the quartette of bridesmaids and six-year-old Wendy Mae Lasseau was her cousin's flower girl.

The blue moire taffeta gown of the maid of honor was complemented by a matching picture hat and her shower bouquet of deep pink carnations and hyacinths.

Miss Gilchrist and Miss Millham wore pale green taffeta gowns and matching picture hats and carried bouquets of pastel pink carnations and mauve stocks

The two local bridesmaids were dressed in mauve taffeta with picture hats in the same shade and their shower bouquets included pink carnations and snapdragon.

Wendy Mae wore a quaint white taffeta gown, fashioned with a tight bodice and lace inserts in the full skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of carnations and Spring flowers.

The groom was supported by Wm Fraser of Port Alberni, and acting as ushers were Joe and Don Hill, brothers of the bride, Barry Townsend, Vancouver, and Gerry Bondua

Mrs. Nelson Ball presided at the organ, and during the signing of the register, accompanied Mrs R Chesley McLeod as she sang "O Love Divine."

Spring flowers formed a bower at the Elks' Hall where the young couple, assisted by their mothers, received the guests,

Mrs. Hill was attired in a floor-length gown of pale blue crepe and wore contrasting accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and hyacinths. A simply-styled dinner gown of navy satin-back crepe was the choice of Mrs. Macready with which she wore a corsage of deep pink carnations and hyacinths.

The decorated wedding cake was flanked by white tapers and tiny vases of lily of the valley on a fine lace cloth. Judge L. Arnold Hanna proposed the toast.

Acting as serviteurs were the Misses Joanne Shepherd, Isabel Hughes, Donna Gilchrist, Jose Stralendorff, all of Vancouver, Idell and Marion Vold, Beverly Neve, Jean Venables, Lorraine Donovan, Dorothy Perry, Faye Robinson, Vella Fornaso, Miriam Garter, Anne McMillan, Diana Campbell, Jacie and Mari Pineo.

For traveling the bride donned a navy blue gabardine suit, rosewood topcoat and hat of navy trimmed with grey veiling and a navy feather.

The honeymoon will be spent in Vancouver and Washington State. Mr. and Mrs. Macready will make their home on Second Avenue S.

Honored guests at the wedding were the bride's grandfathers, Mr J. Howitt, pioneer school teacher of Alberni, and Mr J. Hill, Calgary

Besides Mr. Hill, out-of-town guests included the groom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McLeod, Vancouver, and Mr. John Whitbread, Vancouver.

St. Saviour's Donation Tea

Kendell will welcome the guests, while Mrs. B. Jacklin will be in charge of the donation table. Mrs C. F. Banfield and Mrs. N. R. Hill will preside at the tea table. Those assisting in serving tea will be Mrs G. D. White, Mrs. T. Wilson, Mrs. J Wilson, Mrs. H Shandley, Mrs. F. Bonner, Mrs. A Laidler and Mrs. W Spalding.

Vancouver Trip Follows Rites

Mr and Nicholas Joasul are spending their honeymoon in Vancouver, following their marriage performed by Rev M A. J. Warren in the vestry of First United Church, Saturday.

The auburn-haired bride, youngest daughter of Mr. W T Rogers of Regina Beach, Sask., given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Les Palmer, was attired in a smart suit of hunter's green gabardine with small navy blue felt trimmed with circular veil, blue accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Her sister, Miss Alene Rogers, wearing a blue gabardine suit with pink flower-hat, pink accessories and rosebud corsage, was her only attendant. Mr Stephen Joasul was best man for his brother, who is the son of Mrs. Barbara Joasul of Victoria.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr and Mrs. Leslie Palmer, 1023 Esquimalt Road. Mr. Les Palmer gave the toast.

Today's Millinery Styles Right for Margaret Rose

By MURIEL NARRAWAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 3 (CP). — When Princess Margaret was 16 she didn't like hats and would only wear them on strictly official occasions.

Now, as leader of teen-age fashions, her hats are copied by thousands.

Today's styles are just the thing for the Princess. The close-fitting models are a perfect frame for her delicate features and off-the-face styles are a "must" for Margaret's job. She must never wear a hat that shadows or conceals her face on public occasions.

But she has many styles left to choose from and Aage Thaarup—milliner to the Royal Family—says Margaret has a definite taste of her own.

A red felt skull cap with a coal-heaver's brim at back and none in front was made to match her red coat. It has black Astrakhan pompons to match her coat trimming and a black quill shoots up to give her height.

Three out of four of her hats have veils, and her newest type of veil falls loosely over the face to eye level rather like a fencer's mask.

At the moment, Princess Margaret has shown a preference for the cloche, bonnet and beret styles with the slight, unexaggerated side dip.

To Sentence Watson Today On Entering, Theft Charge

Robert Watson, who told Magistrate H. C. Hall he had just been released from Oakalla Prison, pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering and committing theft in a jewelry store, in city police court yesterday morning. [illegible] charge on Monday, but changed his plea yesterday. He was charged with breaking into G. D. Titterton's jewelry store at 2666 Quadra Street.

Constable William Knowles, who arrested Watson 25 minutes after the burglary was reported, told the court he took the accused into custody in a [illegible] day afternoon.

When he entered the cafe, the constable said he saw Watson leaning over a table talking to three sailors. Standing behind the accused, Constable Knowles said he heard him say the watches were worth $65. On searching Watson, he said, he found several watches and a $10 bill, which one of the sailors said he paid for a watch.

Detective Sergeant Henry F. Jarvis said the store was entered by smashing a plate glass window.

Watson told the magistrate he had been drinking heavily and didn't remember breaking into the store or coming to Victoria.

Claude L. Harrison, city prose- [illegible] which showed numerous convictions from 1925 to the present. Magistrate Hall remanded him for sentence until this morning.

TAX CHARGE

The court heard Crown evidence on a charge of failing to remit income tax deductions to the Receiver-General against the M. & K. Logging Co., Ltd., 1216 Broad Street, operations of which were carried on at Saturna Island. The company is now in bankruptcy.

F. J. Child, of the National Revenue Department, Taxation Division, testified that after conducting audits he found the company had made deductions from employees' wages and did not remit them to the Receiver-General.

On November 25, 1948, he said, he found $490 had not been remitted, and on January 10, 1949, discovered $309 was not remitted. He also told of an earlier offence, but said that amount finally was paid. Mr. Child said there is still a substantial amount owing. The company employed about 20 men, he said.

David D. Sloan, Crown counsel, asked for a $2,500 fine, explaining that the maximum is a $10,000 fine. Magistrate Hall said he could not see his way clear to impose a heavy fine if it "simply means paralyzing the creditors."

He remanded the case until May any company assets.

Patrick Steele, 19, pleaded guilty to a charge of theft of a radiator cap from a car owned by Gordon Rennie, 2568 Dufferin Road, early yesterday morning. He was remanded to Wednesday for sentence and a report from the probation officer.

Constable Thomas Smith said he arrested Steele after he saw him take the radiator cap from a car on a Douglas Street used car lot. The accused also tried all the doors of the car, he said.

Massey States Commission 'Not Highbrow'

OTTAWA, May 3 (CP).—Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, a friendly, inquisitive man who hasn't much use for the word "culture," told reporters today that his Royal Commission on Arts, Letters and Sciences isn't going to inflict "culture" on any- [illegible]

"We can't impose 'tastes' on anybody and we can't set standards of taste," the commission chairman said at a press conference at which he announced the commission will tour Canada, beginning with a series of public meetings opening here August 1.

NOT REMOTE

The commission wasn't going to be a "highbrow" affair in that it would be "remote" from the average Canadian. That, he confessed, was why he was "afraid of the word 'culture'." It conjured up a suggestion that wasn't among the commission's aims.

He said the commission will make recommendations to develop to their fullest Canadian arts, music, letters and sciences and "everything in that field" for both "the producer and the consumer." The object would be to give the people what they wanted.

The commission would try to contribute to the promotion of national unity and a true Canadian spirit.

Chinese Victorious In Senior 'A' Debut

Students Upset Timber Service, 3-2; Share Senior "A" Men's Softball Lead

Next game, tonight: Bluebird Cabs vs Brentwood Aces.

Chinese Students joined Douglas Tire at the top of the senior "A" men's softball standings as they made their debut in "A" company a successful one by edging Timber Service, 3-2, at Upper Central last night.

Students' victory was in the nature of an upset but they deserved their win. They backed southpaw Jimmy Chan's effective hurling with a steady fielding performance, posting a total of 12 assists, although both the Loggers' runs were of the tainted variety. Feature of their infield was the play of Jimmy John at shortstop. He handled ten chances flawlessly and garnered two singles that figured in the scoring of two of his team's runs. Chan allowed but six hits, struck out two and walked three.

LOSS TO HOUGH

Earl King and Ray Hough shared the hurling duties for the Timbermen. The former allowed five hits and two runs in four innings. Hough gave up only two hits in the last five frames but was tagged with the loss when Students broke a 2-2 deadlock in the seventh.

Timber Service took the lead in the second inning when Mickey Smith drew a walk, went to second on a wild pitch, and scored when first baseman Duncan Lee threw wildly to third trying to complete a double play. Students tied the count in the top of the third on a walk, John's single and an error.

Loggers took their second lead in the bottom half of the inning on singles by Jim Ireland and King, two fielders' choices and an error. Lee circled the bases in the top of the fourth on a single, stolen base, wild pitch and outfield fly to deadlock the count again.

John singled to open the seventh and went to second as Tom Derr drew a walk. A double steal placed runners on second and third and Toy Mar's long fly allowed John to score the winning run after the catch.

Stars Sink Suds To Remain In P.C.L. Lead

HOLLYWOOD, May 3 (AP).—Hollywood Stars remained atop the Pacific Coast League tonight by trimming Seattle 5-3. The win gave the Stars a four-to-one lead in the series.

Pinky Woods, who hurled shutout ball after relieving Art Schallock in the fifth, was credited with his fourth victory. Bill Bevens, making his first start for the visitors, went the route.

Palmer Leads Carolina Golf

SOUTHERN PINES, N.C., May 3 (AP). — A four-under-par 68 shot Johnny Palmer into the lead in the 36-hole Carolinas Open golf tournament today.

A 36-32 pushed him from fifth place into the halfway lead at 139 as none of the four early pacesetters could better par 72 over the 6,661-yard Midpines course today.

Palmer goes into tomorrow's 36-hole windup with a two-stroke lead over Dick Chapman, Pinehurst amateur, and professionals Joe Zarhardt of Greensboro and Skip Alexander, all bracketed at 141.

Nobles Take Opener

Noble's Contractors handed Farmers a 10-4 defeat last night at Macdonald Park in the opening game of the junior section of the Minor Baseball Association. Milne and Carter shared the mound duties for the winners, with the latter getting credit for the victory. Paterson was behind the plate. Martin and Curtis were the losing battery.

Stirring Flag Race In National League

With the New York Yankees holding a reasonably substantial lead in the American League, the baseball spotlight currently is on the senior major league circuit, which is having another of its close pennant chases. No club has shown any definite superiority and standings are shuffled daily. Only two and one-half games separate the league-leading Boston Braves and the Pittsburgh Pirates, who dropped into the basement.

Chicago Cubs stopped the champions yesterday as Walt Dubiel pitched a 4-0 shutout. Cincinnati Reds lost a chance to gain a virtual tie for the lead when Ralph Branca blanked them on six hits as the Dodgers won, 3-0. The Reds are still second, but only half a game in front of St. Louis Cardinals, New York Giants and the Brooks, all of whom are back on a .500 rating.

GORDON CONNECTS

Sid Gordon hit his fifth home run, a triple and a double as the Giants topped the Pirates, 5-3, for Clint Hartung's third straight win. The Phils pushed over six runs in the seventh to down the Cards, 7-3, although outhit, 10-8.

Feature of National League action was Dubiel's pitching. The ex-Seattle Rainier hasn't allowed a base on balls in two games, and only two earned runs in the 24 innings he has pitched this season. Yesterday, he gave up but five hits and only one Boston runner reached third base.

YANKS KEEP COMING

While Detroit and the Boston Red Sox provided most of the thrills, the big story in the American League continued to be the amazing New York Yankees. The Stengelmen came from behind to defeat St. Louis Browns, 5-3, and increase their lead to three games. Joe Page hurled three perfect innings of relief to get credit for the victory.

The Tigers and the Red Sox hooked up in a slugfest which ended in a 14-14 tie after 13 innings. The game was called on account of darkness, but before it ended, fans got their money's worth. Detroit scored nine runs in the third to take a 10-4 lead but were behind, 14-11, going into the last of the ninth. They tied it up and neither club managed to score in the last four innings. Vern Stephens took the major league home run lead by hitting one for the Bosox. The Tigers' sensational rookie, John Groth, connected for his fifth. Ted Williams also homered. It was his second.

Another rookie, Washington's Clyde Vollmer, hit two out of the park as the Senators outlasted the Chicago White Sox, 14-12.

Unusual Diamond Ballet

There was nothing interpretive about above action, snapped by cameraman at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, although it came out like baseball version of shadow dance. New York Giants' Johnny Mize is out by half step as Gil Hodges, Dodger first baseman, stretches for infield throw. Even umpire in background adds to confusion of arms, legs and shadows.

Foul ball at crucial moment in last night's senior "A" men's softball game between Chinese Students and Timber Service brought these expressions of anxiety to faces of batter, opposing players and fans. Rotund Manager Wally Smith, Jack Battie (extreme left) and Stan Tenning also follow flight of ball from Timbermen's bench. Umpire Murray Dunnett is shown at extreme right.

Thomas Ready For Cage Final

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP). — Freddie Thomas, star player of the Windsor Assumption Purple Raiders basketball squad, will definitely take part in the Dominion senior basketball finals here May 31.

Ebbie Bowering, president of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association, said today he had received confirmation from Windsor that the Negro star would be here for the best-of-five finals against Vancouver Clover Leafs.

Earlier, Bowering had received word from Windsor that Thomas might be unable to make the trip.

Longden Decides To Pass Up Derby

ALBANY, Calif., May 3 (AP).—Alberta's Johnny Longden, for three years the top rider in the United States, said today he is passing up the Kentucky Derby to ride in the $50,000 Golden Gate Handicap next Saturday.

The famous jockey said he had canceled an engagement to pilot John's Joy at the Churchill Downs classic. He will be up on Stepfather, a leading contender of the W-L Ranch in the Golden Gate.

LOS ANGELES, May 3 (AP).—Pacific Coast League president, Clarence Rowland, today slapped a $25 fine on Mickey Grasso, Seattle catcher, for "throwing his bat against the stands and using profane language audible to spectators" in last night's game at Hollywood.

Grasso was involved in a dispute with Umpire Al Mutart after the arbiter had called a third strike against him.

Belfast Celtic Set to Start Ten-Game Tour

NEW YORK, May 3 (CP). — Belfast Celtic, the fabulous soccer team which has won the Irish League title 18 times since its formation 54 years ago, arrived today for a playing tour of Eastern Canada and the United States.

For all 15 of the players and all but two of the five-man staff, the trip was their first visit to North America.

The tour, sponsored by the American Soccer League Inc., will last six weeks. Ten games are scheduled, in New York, Toronto, Montreal, Kearney, N.J., Fall River, Mass., Detroit and Philadelphia.

Team Manager Elisha Scott, who has won 33 caps as Ireland's goalkeeper in international games against England, Scotland and Wales, made no predictions on the tour.

First game of the series will be here May 8, against a representative New York side.

Austin Donnelly, chairman of the club, said the Celtics had won the All-Ireland championship ten times in the last 12 years.

Included among the team's roster were such soccer greats as Paddy Bonar, Kevin McAlinden, and Jim Murdock.

Better Golf

By SAM SNEAD

The chances are that your swing isn't exactly the same any two times any more than two of your signatures are exactly the same.

So your first job in making yourself a better golfer is that of learning what your own special style is.

The way that the most successful pro golf instructors make their money and make their pupils good golfers is by learning what style gives the pupil the best results. When they see what style is most effective then they tell the pupil what he should do in his practising to groove that style.

If you can practise your swing in front of a full-length mirror you can see for yourself a lot of things that are plainly waste and awkward movements. When you are watching your swing in the mirror you will learn to keep your head steady and that is one of the most important things. Don't worry too much about keeping your eye on the ball, but do make sure that your head doesn't move.

Evenly-Matched Juniors In Third-Game Deadlock

BRANDON, Man., May 3 (CP).—Montreal Royals and Brandon Wheat Kings continued to stick as close together as Siamese twins when they played through overtime tonight to wind up in a 3-3 tie in the third game of their best-of-seven Memorial Cup hockey final.

The game was just one more indication of how closely-matched the two clubs have been in the series. Royals won the first game 3-2 in Winnipeg last Thursday and the Wheat Kings replied by taking the second game in Brandon last Saturday night by an identical score.

KINGS FUMBLE LEAD

More than 4,800 fans saw Royals dash into a 1-0 lead in the first period only to have Wheat Kings roar back for three straight counters in the second, then wilt in the final frame as Royals scored twice. Neither club scored in the 10-minute overtime period.

The series, a see-saw battle in each game, now will move to Winnipeg for the fourth contest Thursday night, and back here Saturday for the fifth. The sixth and seventh contests also are scheduled for Brandon's Arena.

Gordie (Swede) Knutson proved to be the white-haired boy for Montreal, scoring his team's last two counters after Dickie Moore had opened scoring in the first period. Moore also drew two assists as did linemate Matt Benoit.

Frank King, Brandon captain, was high point-getter for the home team, scoring once and assisting on Walt Pawlyshyn's marker. Angus Juckes, hard-skating wingman, tallied the other Wheat Kings' goal.

Forgive Manager For Encouraging Attack on Heckler

BALTIMORE, May 3 (AP).—The board of directors of Baltimore Orioles voted last night to forgive Manager Tommy Thomas for telling one of his ball players to "go get" a heckler.

Thomas yesterday completed a five-day suspension ordered by International League President Frank Shaughnessy as a result of the incident last Tuesday night when the Orioles were tangling with Toronto.

A fan was riding Infielder Ellis Clary and apparently getting his goat. Thomas pointed the heckler out to Clary and told him to "go get him."

Clary and two other Oriole players climbed into the stands. Police blocked the way, however.

Clary received a three-day suspension for his part in the affair.

Yanks Favored To Retain O.C. Golf Title

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 3 (AP). — Defending champion Frank Stranahan spearheads a 16-man United States invasion seeking the British Amateur golf title this month.

A total of 197 entries have been received by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, sponsor of the event. It will be played May 23-28 at Portmarnock, a suburb of Dublin.

The Americans, who have won the last two titles, will be favored to carry off the crown again. Their sharpshooters, in addition to Stranahan, are Willie Turnesa, the 1947 winner, and Skee Riegel, who won the United States Amateur championship two years ago.

Southpaw Percy Lucas, captain of Britain's Walker Cup team, and most other leading British and Irish players will try to stem the American raid. Among them will be Jimmy Bruen, the Irishman who won the British title in 1946.

Soccer Final Slated Sunday

Esquimalt and Oak Bay will meet at Heywood Avenue, Sunday, for the championship of the Victoria and District Football Association and possession of the Garrison Cup, it was announced last night by Secretary Reg Clarke.

The Dockyarders won first-half honors while Oak Bay came through in the second half. Game time is 2.30 p.m.

Junior Cage Final To Open Tomorrow

WINNIPEG, May 3 (CP).—Little more than a week ago Winnipeg Light Infantry hoopsters were recognized as Canada's first official junior basketball champions. Tonight they head for Toronto, determined to make the title official in a belated best-of-three East-West final with Toronto Y.M.C.A.

All the games, billed for May 5, 6 and 7, will be played in Toronto.

W.L.I., all reserve army soldiers, won the Western championship by coming from behind to take the last two games of their best-of-three series with Raymond, Alta., Comets.

Durocher Gets Clean Bill of Health—Chandler Criticizes Conduct of Fans

By GAYLE TALBOT

CINCINNATI, May 3 (AP).—Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler gave Leo Durocher a clean bill of health today and demanded that every baseball club in the United States take immediate measures to protect its players from the abuse of fans.

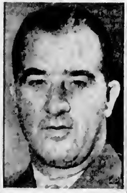
In less than two hours Chandler found there was not sufficient evidence to indicate the New York Giants' manager had "deliberately assaulted" Fred Boysen, a fan, after a game at the Polo Grounds last Thursday.

"Under the circumstances, the suspension against Durocher is lifted immediately and Durocher will rejoin his team on Wednesday, May 4," Chandler announced.

BLAMES FANS, MANAGEMENT

The commissioner took a belt both at club owners who have not properly policed their parks and at fans who have abused the athletes.

"There is ample evidence," he said, "that the Polo Grounds was not properly policed on the afternoon of April 28, or Fred Boysen would not have been permitted to move about in the box seat section, for which he had no ticket, and to hurl insulting language, which he directed at Durocher principally, and would not have been on the field at the conclusion of the game.



HAPPY CHANDLER

"Fair play demands that vicious name-calling by fans, in the direction of players, be not indulged in. Ballplayers have a right to protection from unwarranted abuse."

PROMISES ACTION

President Horace Stoneham of the Giants, beaming at the quick acquittal of his peppery little manager, promised the situation would be rectified immediately at the Polo Grounds.

Durocher, having paid what he earnestly hopes is the last of numerous trips to Chandler's office here, just sat and relaxed and drank milk after the ordeal had ended.

"Just say that I'm happy," he replied to questions. "The only statement that amounts to anything is the one the commissioner just made."

All Durocher faces now is the charge of simple assault filed against him in New York City yesterday by Boysen's lawyer. It is scheduled for hearing Monday, and Leo said he will be there, complete with affidavits and eye-witnesses.

Every-Day Occurrence for Cobb

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP).—Wonder what Ty Cobb, Mr. Firebrand himself, must have been thinking about when he saw those front-page stories describing Leo Durocher's run-in with a heckling fan.

Old Ty was no Little Lord Fauntleroy when it it came to settling differences with raucous spectators. He was ridden harder than any player in the game, both by rival players and fans.

It was almost an every-day occurance for Cobb to exchange bitter words with spectators. Exactly 37 years ago this month, the fiery player lost patience when a heckler hurled an extremely insulting adjective at him and chased into the Polo Grounds stands after him.

Detroit Tigers were then playing New York Yankees, who at the time played all their home games at the Polo Grounds.

Cobb ruffed his offender around plenty. The fan went to hospital, and Cobb drew an indefinite suspension from President Ban Johnson of the American League. Ty's fellow Tigers went on strike.

The following day Manager Hughie Jennings had to recruit an odd assortment of semi-pros and sandlotters to round out a team which incidentally was overwhelmed by Philadelphia Athletics, 24-2.

The upshot of it was that Cobb drew a $50 fine in addition to a week's suspension, while the players who went on a sympathy strike were fined $100 apiece.

Crush Salem, 11-4, With Unusual Show Of Power for Third Win of Campaign

VICTORIA	3	7	.300

Victoria Athletics looked like anything but tailenders at Salem last night as they smashed out 15 hits to break their batting slump and hand Salem Senators a 11-5 trouncing in the first game of the four-game series. The teams meet tonight in a double-header.

Three big innings—the first, fourth and eighth—gave the win to the Victorians as they bunched their blows for three runs in each frame and added singletons in the second and seventh.

A base on balls and hits by Bob Keeler, Vic Buccola and John Hack brought in the first three runs. An error and hits by Keeler, Buccola, Frank Finnegan and Dick Morgan accounted for the second three-run cluster. Triples by Sol Israel, Keeler and Gil McDougald were mainly responsible for the last four runs for the winners.

WIN TO PESKY

Pete Vucurevich started for the A's, but went out in the fifth in favor of John Pesky when four bases on balls and three hits plated four Salem runs. Pesky got the win.

Manager Ted Norbert switched his line-up, inserting Hack at third base and playing Morgan in the outfield. Keeler led the hitters with four safeties in five trips while Hack drove in four runs.

At Bremerton, the Bluejackets evened their series with Spokane by hanging on to gain a 3-2 decision in a 13-inning thriller. The Tars knotted the count in the last of the ninth and won it four innings later when Keith Simon drove in a run with a pinch single. The win went to John Marshall, who went into the game in the tenth.

GRECO HITS TWO OVER

Dick Greco, last year's W.I.L. slugging star, was back in the news again at Wenatchee. The powerful Tacoma outfielder hit two home runs, one with the bases full, to spearhead the Tigers to a 20-8 win over the Chiefs. Pitcher Vince Lazor also homered for the winners, while Catcher Nick Pesut connected for a circuit drive for the losers.

In the other game Vancouver Capilanos edged the leading Yakima Bears 8-7, to square the series at one game each. It took them 11 innings.

Forbes Whiffs 16 To Equal Record

Norm Forbes pitched Tillicums to a 7-2 triumph over Pacific Meat in a Junior Minor Baseball Association fixture at Macdonald Park last night. Forbes was practically the whole show as he struck out 16 in the seven-inning encounter to tie the league record. He permitted only two hits and errors by his teammates prevented him from getting a shutout.

Glen Fawcett and Chu King divided mound chores for the losers.

The Sportlight

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK, May 2.—It is now fairly evident that baseball's Commissioner A. B. Chandler has been [illegible] mistake. Regardless of what happens in Cincinnati today there was no reason for Durocher's suspension on the flimsy evidence of a former Brooklyn street fighter, placed on probation for a year. The case in Cincinatti should read "Durocher vs Chandler" in place of the other way around.

Chandler made his first serious mistake in suspending Durocher for a year when Leo was then called only as a witness in a battle between Branch Rickey and Larry MacPhail.

SECOND ERROR

His second mistake is the suspending of a manager in the thick of a pennant race without any evidence whatever and it is full proof of strong bias and prejudice. A third mistake in the Durocher case will undoubtedly mean the end of Chandler as a baseball commissioner as soon as his present term runs out. It is for this reason that I believe Chandler is the man on trial in Cincinnati today.

The testimony in this case has been so overwhelmingly in favor of Durocher that there is no move Chandler should make beyond dismissing the matter, unless the open charge of a "frame up" can be proved. This is what the latest rhubarb look to be.

Dismissing the case however will not relieve Chandler from the charge of stubborn prejudice against an unpopular manager whom Happy has helped to make more popular than he ever was before.

Another important factor in this Durocher-Boysen turmoil is this. The baseball commissioner, the presidents of both leagues and above all the 16 club owners have been extremely lax in their protection of players from foul-mouthed and abusive fans.

FANS TO BLAME

Razzing a ballplayer or an umpire is understood to be part of the game. But there is a wide difference between razzing, even rough razzing, and the filthy obscenity so often heard, which not only involves the player himself but his wife and the rest of his family. Some of this language is beyond belief. It is too indecent for the gutter. Yet it is permitted at every ball park in the country, regardless of the women and children present. Knowing that Durocher was walking a tight wire, Boysen took advantage of a situation where he should have been promptly thrown out of the park.

If some method of handling the over-rabid fan, nearly always a coward, isn't developed, there will be even greater trouble in the future. The fan has had all the best of it because he pays his dollar or his two dollars, where cash is more important than sportsmanship. The end of the Durocher vs Chandler case isn't yet in sight.

THE FASTEST GOLFER

"Your piece about the speed Gene Sarazen used in getting around a golf course leads me to a question," writes L.H.F. "Who is the fastest big-time golfer you ever saw play?"

Number 1—George Duncan, the Scot who won the British open years ago and made many tours of this country's bunkered fairways.

Number 2 — Bobby Jones, who never even wasted time on a preliminary wiggle.

Number 3 — Gene Sarazen. Jones and Sarazen were about on a par for pace. The two together could easily play 18 holes in two hours or less.

"Slow golf is terrible for everybody," Duncan once said. "It is bad for the player and even worse for the gallery. I know there are many golfers who have no thought for the gallery. But what would they be doing for a living with no gallery to bring in the money?"

HAGEN'S STRATEGY

Hagen was difficult to time. If he was playing a tough match he first found out how his opponent liked to play. If he was against a fast-moving golfer, Hagen would loaf. If his opponent was a slow player, Hagen would hurry and often lead his man 80 or 90 yards.

"Making them play your pace is a big factor in match play." Walter said once. "You must dominate the match. You have to take charge. The best way to do this is to make the other fellow play your game and also set the pace he doesn't like and isn't used to."

There never was a finer match player than the old Haig. Any man who can win 29 out of 30 P.G.A. matches, as Hagen did in the championships from 1923 through 1927, has to be the king of the tribe.

Thinking it all over, the great putters of golf were never dawdling, creeping pestilences on the green. This includes Jones, Hagen and Sarazen, Francis Ouimet, Travis and Travers.

You never saw any of these ever put on any engineering surveys before striking the putt.

Nelson Denies Comeback Try

DALLAS, Tex., May 3 (AP).—Byron Nelson, once kingpin of golf, says he doesn't know how they got that stuff about his returning to the tournament trail.

The semi-retired Nelson (since 1946) declared here today that he was adding one more tournament to his modest string for 1949 and would drop it in 1950.

This year Nelson has played in the Masters. He now is in Dallas to appear in the Texas P.G.A., of which he is defending champion. Next week he will go to New Rochelle, N.Y., to play in the Goodall Round-Robin. In June, he will participate in the Colonial National Invitation at Fort Worth—and that will be all. He won't play in the United States Open because his exhibition schedule interferes.

B.C. XI Prepares For O.C. Tourists

VANCOUVER, May 3 (CP).—The British Columbia All-Stars, a little better than a month away from tackling the touring Newcastle United soccer squad, went through serious two-hour drill last night.

Others have been scheduled for Thursday and Sunday by Bill Findler and Trev Harvey, respectively, manager and coach.

Calisthenics and steam baths were scheduled for Thursday while an exhibition match is down for Sunday.

Fate Dogs Hurler With Second Death

WYOMING, Ia., May 3 (AP).—Clifford Dirks, a grief-stricken high school baseball pitcher, was in seclusion today after a ball he hurled caused accidental death the second time within a year.

The victim was Glenn Rhoads, 17-year-old Lisbon, Ia., senior, who died in a Cedar Rapids, Ia., hospital this morning of a delayed brain hemorrhage.

Rhoads was a second-base runner when the accident occurred in a Lisbon vs. Wyoming game. Dirks, 16, the Wyoming pitcher, threw the ball in an effort to pick Rhoads off. The ball hit Rhoads in the back of the head.

Rhoads went home, apparently recovering. His condition became critical early today.

Last Autumn a ball pitched by Dirks hit Norman Latore of Oxford Junction, Ia., in a similar accident. Latore died the next day.

Sport Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP).—Bill Mislin, sports editor of The Bismarck, N.D., Tribune, has an answer to the question recently raised in this corner about what has become of the "hungry young kids" in professional golf. . . . One of them is 20-year-old Paul O'Leary from Bismarck. . . . Paul, Bill says, could negotiate the hilly nine-hole local course in the low 40's when he was only nine years old. He won his first city title at 13 and the state amateur championship in 1946, '47 and '48. Then he decided to turn pro and give the others a chance . . . North Dakota fans staged dances, exhibitions and the like and raised $4,200 to start Paul on the Winter circuit. . . . He finished in the money only once in six tournaments. Then laid off for two months. . . He still had $2,400 when he set out in a 1937 jalopy to make the Summer tour. . . . The first stop was Wilmington, N.C., where Paul shot a 64 the first day and almost won the pennant. . .

ALMOST A MONOPOLY

Paul's father, 63-year-old Tom O'Leary, has been pro at the Bismarck municipal course for 30 years and in that time has seen his pupils win 15 North Dakota titles.

K.V.'s End Season With Presentation

Individual trophies were presented to members of K.V.'s intermediate "B" boys' basketball team, winners of the British Columbia championship, at the eighth annual banquet of K.V.'s Athletic Club recently.

Guests were welcomed by President Murray Turner, who spoke briefly and praised the work of the executive and the coaches of the various teams. Guest speakers were John Priestly of the Lions Club, Mr. Hudson of the Gyro Club, and Archie McKinnon of the Y.M.C.A. The evening wound up with dancing.

Track Events at Empire Games To Be Held on Grass; Plans Set

MONTREAL, May 3 (CP).—Canada's track stars can start searching for long spikes because track events at the British Empire Games in 1950 will be held on grass.

J. W. Davies, honorary secretary of the British Empire Games Association of Canada, made this announcement today in telling The Canadian Press of early arrangements for the big February show in Auckland, New Zealand. The grass [illegible] from Down Under holds for the sprints as well as the long-distance events.

So far as Canadians are concerned, it marks the first time in major competition the trackmen will have to compete on the turf.

The New Zealand ruling, however, will have no bearing on the Canadian championships and Games trials scheduled for Toronto July 15-16. Although aspirants for Canada's team will likely do some extra-curricular grass-track training on the quiet, the Toronto track events will be run off on the cinder paths.

Davies said he thought times made in Auckland may be a bit slow, particularly for the dash distances, but that the distance runners would find resilience of the turf surprising as well as pleasing.

Opening ceremonies for the 1950 Games will be held at Eden Park, Auckland, February 4 and closing ceremonies at Western Springs Stadium, Auckland, February 11.

LEAVE JANUARY 22

The Canadian team will sail from Vancouver January 22.

Davies announced that all trials in Canada must be completed by October 31.

All events will be run off at Auckland except rowing. The venue for rowing has not yet been definitely determined.

Some of the Canadian trials have already been set. At present here is the official situation:

Track and field: Toronto (East York), July 15-16.

Rowing—Royal Canadian Henley course, St. Catharines, Ont., July 27-30.

Boxing — Fort William or Port Arthur, early in October.

Swimming — Montreal or British Columbia, in August.

Cycling—Vancouver, July or August.

Fencing — Montreal or Toronto early October.

Weightlifting — Zones: Eastern, [illegible] ern, Vancouver. Dates unknown at present.

Wrestling—Not yet declared.

Lawn Bowling—Not yet declared.

Competition rules of the international federations governing the various sports will apply at the Games.

Attendance Shows Gain In Majors

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP).—Baseball attendance in the major leagues, expected to drop after the 1948 all-time high, shows a slight increase over last year for the first two weeks of the season.

A total of 1,728,534 fans paid to watch the big leagues as compared [illegible] year. Although the increase is only approximately 1 per cent, it is surprising that attendance is holding up to the record level.

The New York Yankees - Boston Red Sox series, involving three games in Boston, April 22-23-24, and three more in Yankee Stadium last week-end, contributed [illegible] of the American League's 880,984 paid.

Despite their early season pitching troubles, Brooklyn Dodgers show a sharp increase leading the National with 147,066. Boston Braves and Chicago Cubs also are up.

Detroit and New York are showing the way in the American, doing better business than last year.

About NATIONAL DEFENCE

Dear Sir:

You are undoubtedly aware of the importance of national defence today. Essential to the development of that defence are the men of the RESERVE UNITS. The service and wartime experience of the veteran and the alert intelligence of the younger element are vital to the development of plans for national security.

All three services have been actively appealing for men and the response has been good. However, many men who wish to join are in doubt on an important point which only you, as their employer, can answer.

They would be giving part of their time to Canada. Would you on your side release them for the required annual training period? This training is an essential part of their voluntary service. You can help them to serve Canada by granting them additional leave with or without pay.

The decision is yours. Your Help is needed in building a sound defence organization to help insure the peace of Canada.

Sincerely,

Brooke Claxton

Minister of National Defence

Train Trips in Germany Prove Good---on Paper

NEW YORK, May 3 (NANA).—Want to take a fast, comfortable trip across Germany on the East-West express? Don't let the State Department or the travel bureaus tell you there is no interzonal traffic at this time.

Why, traffic between Western and Eastern Germany is [illegible] all the time. A couple of new speedier express lines have just been added. One runs from Munich to Berlin, the other from Leipzig to Cologne.

It's all in the latest edition of the Reichsbahn (German railroads) timetable for the Soviet zone, just off the presses. When the German railroad authorities inquired with the Soviet Military Government whether they should continue to list interzonal through-trains in spite of the year-old blockade, they were told not only to do so, but to add a couple of extra trains—on paper—for good measure.

The Cologne newspaper, Rheinische Zeitung, in reporting the bizarre incident, does not venture to speculate on the motive behind the Soviet order.

Laurier Monument Set To Be Built This Summer

MONTREAL, May 3 (CP). — A monument to Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be put up on Dominion Square here this Summer—30 years after the design won first prize in a Canada-wide competition.

The monument to Sir Wilfrid is to be erected jointly by the Canadian United Alliance and the Institut Democratique Canadien with subscriptions from all parts of Canada. About $40,000 has been collected so far for the construction of the $75,000 22-feet-high memorial to the first French-Canadian Prime Minister of Canada.

The design is by Emile Brunet, Montreal sculptor who was studying in Paris at the time of a competition for a national monument to the great Canadian statesman. He won both first and second prizes, but because of the size of the first prize design, the second choice was selected to be built on Parliament Hill in Ottawa.

The monument will be a high shaft of Megantic non-ferrous granite on which will be carved the coats of arms of all ten Canadian provinces. In front of it will be a bronze figure of the famed Canadian statesman on a five-foot pedestal.

The features of the former Prime Minister of Canada are said to be almost perfect, as the sculptor was able to work from a death mask on his subject.

The idea of a monument to Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Montreal was originally proposed by the late J. S. Douglas, United States ambassador to Great Britain, who launched the campaign with Senator T. D. Bouchard of St. Hyacinthe, Que.

Earth's Spin Slowing Due to Tides

WASHINGTON, May 3 (NANA) —Tides raised by the moon in the earth's liquid core are slowing the planet's revolution and increasing the length of the day.

This thesis is advanced in a report prepared for the official organ of the British Association for the Advancement of Science by Dr. W. M. Elsasser of the University of Pennsylvania.

LONGER DAY

It has long been known that the length of the day is increasing by a minute fraction of a second each year. This generally has been attributed to the frictional drag of tides in shallow seas—the Bering Sea alone accounting for almost half the effect.

However, it is also known that the core of the earth is liquid in a strange form—iron at an enormously high temperature but under tremendous pressure. It would, however, respond like water to the pull of the moon, Dr. Elsasser says.

These internal tides act like brakes on the earth's rotation, Dr. Elsasser explains. This theory, he says, satisfies the observed rates better than if the retardation were ascribed to the drag of sea tides alone. The theory assumes that the core of the earth is rotating somewhat more slowly than the shell and that there are areas of tidal turbulence, essentially storms inside the earth.

MAGNETISM CHANGING

The idea of drag due to internal tides receives support from long-time records of changes in the earth's magnetism in local areas, recently published by the terrestrial magnetism department of the Carnegie Institution of Washington. These indicate a different rotation rate for the core and the crust and a gradual displacement of the latter from east to west. It is almost as if there were two rotating planets, one inside the other.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED"

The necessity to stand on line and wait for various services, with which so many persons became familiar during wartime who had never experienced it before, gave a new lease on life to the old saying, "First come, first served."

The first queueing-up, as they call standing in line in England, seems to have been for the purpose of having one's flour ground! At least it was in this connection that the words were first put on the record in English literature. It is in the celebrated "Canterbury Tales" of Geoffrey Chaucer that we find it thus, in the Prologue of the "Wife of Bath's Tale":

"Who so first cometh to the mille first grynt."

"Who so that first to the mill cometh, first grinds."

Chaucer's tale dates about 1386. It was more than a century before "first cometh . . . first grinds" became, in recorded literature, "first come, first served." Then it appears in "The Complaint of Roderick Mors" published by Henry Brinkelow about 1540, in quite the modern form, "First come, first served."

Subsequently the words became proverbial in common speech and in print. An amusing example was authored by the English actor and dramatist, Robert Armin, under date of 1608, as follows:

"He found the sexton making nine graves, . . . and who so dies next, first comes, first served."

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, May 3 (CP).—Western oils went against a slow downward trend on the Toronto Stock Exchange to chalk up narrow advances. Industrials and golds tended lower in the moderately active dealings, while a few base metals were weakening towards the close.

He told his landlady he had been to a rent tribunal, which told him the correct rent was 30 shillings. She believed it and cut the rent.

But when the same tenant asked Chiswick rent tribunal for another reduction, not only was the case dismissed, but the period of protection for the tenant against notice to quit was reduced to a week.

Your Health and Your Weight

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

CAUSE, SYMPTOMS AND TREATMENT OF DISEASE OF OVERWEIGHT

It was a real advance in the health of the entire world when insurance companies issued their findings of the effect of overweight upon the health and the life span of men and women. The lesson sunk still deeper when, in applying for life insurance, the applicants found that if they were much overweight, they were refused insurance, and even if slightly overweight they would have to pay more for their premiums than if they were of normal weight.

About 20 years ago, research physicians and practising or clinical physicians stated that as overweight interfered with the general health and workings of the body, put extra work on the heart, blood vessels and kidneys, it really was a dangerous disease, with causes, signs and symptoms and necessary treatment as in any other disease.

As stated before, a professor of medicine taught his students that overweight is a diseased condition of the body, depending upon an alteration in the balance of nutrition with an accumulation of fat in and between the tissues. It may affect either sex, but is more common in women.

When it occurs early in life, it usually is found that one or both parents are overweight. However, when overweight occurs at middle age, when daily regular work or exercise is at an end, it is because work or exercise has been replaced by an easy life and overeating.

When fat first begins to accumulate on the body, little attention is given it; in fact, as it often improves the appearance, some overweights welcome this excess fat. However, as the amount of fat gradually increases actual harm, the symptoms of the disease occur because, in addition to the excess fat accumulating under the skin and thus rounding out or adding "curves" to the body, it actually accumulates within the tissues of an organ or various organs. This, of course, lessens their ability to work.

Take the heart, for instance, which is made up entirely of muscle tissue. If fat tissue gets in between these elastic muscle cells they lose some of their squeezing power, which is needed to send blood to the lungs to be purified and then to all parts of the body to carry oxygen and food to all the cells. Another condition due to excess fat is that the little bag in which the heart rests—a sort of covering for the heart—gets a lining of excess fat which naturally does not give the heart the amount of room it needs as it enlarges to take in blood to be pumped out again to all parts of the body.

Other organs which accumulate fat are the blood vessels. Excess fat gets in between the elastic tissues of the walls of the blood vessels, and they cannot pump the blood with the amount of power necessary to all parts of the body.

Now that we know the symptoms caused by the disease overweight, the symptoms most serious being in the heart, blood vessels and kidneys, what is the treatment to give relief from the symptoms and prevent serious consequences?

The first thought is to get rid of the excess fat which causes dangerous symptoms and interferes with the working of the body processes, and to replace the fat—useless for work, but useful as food—by muscle tissue.

To reduce, cut down the amount of starches, fats and liquids but maintain a good daily amount of proteins—meats, eggs, fish. Then as much work or exercise as the overweight can safely take replaces some of the lost fat with muscle.

METABOLISM—BUILDING UP AND TEARING DOWN OF BODY TISSUES

Although about one in 20 cases of overweight is due to underactivity of one or more of the glands, still when a number of these gland cases are under the care of one weight specialist, what is called a metabolism clinic is established—usually in one of the hospitals in that community.

I have written about metabolism before but it is still unknown to many overweights and underweights. Metabolism is the rate, or measurement of the rate, at which the body processes work making heat and energy.

There is the rate at which the body processes work even when the body is at complete rest, as during sleep. Then there is the rate at which body processes work when the individual is at rest, but food is in the stomach or small intestine or both, being digested. Finally, there is the rate at which the body processes are creating energy when the individual is doing physical work.

The measurement taken at the metabolism clinic is the rate at which the body processes are working when the body is at complete rest with no digestion going on because this is the lowest, the basal rate. It is thus called the "basal metabolism rate" or B.M.R. This means the complete resting state—physical, mental, emotional. "A person lying motionless and relaxed, 12 to 14 hours after the last meal at ordinary room temperature, is considered to be in a resting state." This is the reason that the B.M.R. is taken about 8 or 9 in the morning before breakfast, which is 14 hours after the meal of the previous night.

While the individual is lying quietly, the amount of oxygen he is using to keep the body processes going is measured. It has been found that for each litre (about a quart) of oxygen he uses (breathes into his lungs), he has manufactured heat equal to the burning or using of 4.8 calories. By measuring the amount of oxygen used or breathed in for a definite time while in this resting state, the amount used during the whole 24 hours can be measured or calculated.

Instead of estimating the basal metabolism rate from the age, shape or sex of the individual, it is calculated on the basis of the amount of skin surface. The heat production per square metre (a little larger than a square yard) is accepted as the measure of the resting heat production of any individual.

Although the skin has its own work to do, for the purpose of this [illegible] "covering" of the organs inside the body. "It is known that the size of the vital organs of the body, the amount of blood, the size and strength of the heart and lungs, the amount of nitrogen in the body are all in proportion to the body surface."

By estimating the amount of body surface, the physician knows by the amount of oxygen used whether the individual has a normal rate. Taking the normal rate at 100 for the skin surface of the patient, if the rate is more than 115 or less than 85 (plus 15 or minus 15), he tries to find the reason. If over 115 he will look for an overactive thyroid gland (goiter) or some infection. If under 85, it is usually due to an underactive thyroid gland. If underactive, excess fat forms in and on the body.

Sometimes the test is taken more than once because some individuals are nervous, which increases the rate at which body processes work.

As a matter of fact, the resting or basal metabolic rate in the majority of overweights and underweights is normal; nevertheless in fairness to all, this test should be made. It is not expensive.

The bidding

South	West	North	East
1 ♥	Pass	3 ♥	Pass
4 N.T.	Pass	5 ♦	Pass
5 ♥	Pass	Pass	Pass

After finding out, via the four-no-trump bid, that North had only one ace, South felt that a five-no-trump bid would be too risky, since it would force a slam no matter what North answered. This was a good decision.

West opened the spade ace, looked at the dummy, and shifted to a diamond. The ace was played; then declarer cashed the top trumps. When the break came to light, South saw that his contract was in jeopardy.

Analyzing the situation South saw that the diamond finesse, even if successful, would not be enough, since he could discard only one club from his own hand and still would have to catch the club queen. So South tried a different plan. He cashed the spade king, discarding a diamond from dummy, then led directly to the diamond king and ruffed away the diamond jack. Now he threw West in with the high trump.

If West had been afraid to give declarer a ruff-and-discard, and had led back a club South's plan would have worked out beautifully, but West made no such error! It was obvious to him that declarer as well as dummy held four clubs, so what good would it do him to get rid of one of them? On that excellent analysis, West played another spade. This left South high and dry, with an unavoidable club loser.

South's line of play had been almost right, but not quite. If he had discarded a club from dummy on the spade king, and then proceeded exactly as he did, the result would have been substantially better.

Use Your Own Fat to Reduce Weight

By DR. J. B. WARREN

The fat on the body of the overweight is just the same as the fats he eats—butter, cream, fat meats. If he eats less fat food or starch food that is stored as fat, and let his body use the fat stored away, he is bound to lose weight. It is this point, using your fat instead of fat food, that is the secret of reducing excess weight safely.

At the Theatres

CAPITOL THEATRE Warning signals are going up all over town about the evil powers of a mysterious tall-dark-and-handsome stranger known in motion picture circles as "Alias Nick Beal." He is scheduled to make an appearance on the screen of the Capitol Theatre in the attractive person of Ray Milland who has the title role in the new Paramount thriller which co-stars him with Audrey Totter and Thomas Mitchell.

ATLAS THEATRE Valli and Jourdan in "The Paradine Case" both play mysterious and enigmatic roles which demand their highest dramatic talents. Also starred is Gregory Peck.

ROYAL THEATRE Revolving around a modern girl's campaign to win herself a husband, Don Hartman's production, "Every Girl Should Be Married," is hailed as one of the season's gayest comedies. Cary Grant, Franchot Tone, Diana Lynn and Betsy Drake have the starring roles. Grant as a successful doctor, Tone as a wealthy department store owner, and the two girls as clerks in the store.

OAK BAY THEATRE The heart-warming roles of Ravic and Joan Madou in Erich Maria Remarque's great story, "Arch of Triumph," are magnificently played by Charles Boyer and Ingrid Bergman in this Enterprise Studio's production now to be seen at the Oak Bay Theatre. It is a United Artists release.

ODEON THEATRE Fred MacMurray and Claudette Colbert find a moment for love-making in Universal-International's romantic comedy, "Family Honeymoon," but it won't last. Claudette, a widowed mother, brings her three children along on the wedding trip, hilariously hindering the romance.

PLAZA THEATRE Even the most hardened horror fans are in for an evening of suspense at the Plaza Theatre where Boris Karloff is currently starring in Favorite Films' "The Man They Could Not Hang." A startling drama told in sensational fashion, the weird and fascinating film fairly bristles with terror as it unfolds a blood-curdling story of a scientist who was able to conquer death.

"She . . . she isn't worse is she, Andy?"

"No. Aside from a bit of plaster she looks as if nothing had happened. A little upset for the minute when she saw me. Naturally, she keeps thinking about the kid . . . if anything had happened after she virtually ran off with him."

"No chance of my getting a peek at her tonight I suppose. Does she know I'm here?"

"Yes. Yes, I told her that."

"Maybe you'd better let me have it." Chester straightened his broad shoulders, waited. There was commiseration in Andy's blue eyes.

"The car still out front?" he inquired evasively.

"I told the fellow to wait."

"Then why don't you and I run back to town? I could do with a couple of jolts about now. I'll set 'em up."

"You mean I'll need a bracer . . . after the jolt?"

"Chet . . ." Andy gave his friend's [illegible] after my own heart, if ever. But women—they're queer."

"I get it. It's Lennon she wanted to see."

"Sent for him as I came out."

"We're shoving off. Hope you don't mind if I tell you about my great-grandfather . . . how he died with his boots on. It usually comes with the third good drink."

"Stout fella!"

CHAPTER XXX

"How did you get here so quick?" Charlie Lennoon demanded the instant he saw his older brother. "I never thought I'd see you tonight."

"You're lucky to be seeing me at all . . . you little devil." Wige tried to growl to conceal his emotion. He bent down and kissed Charlie on the cheek. "I mean," he added hastily, "I might have broken my neck getting here. I flew."

"Gosh! Did you? Who brought you?"

"Mr. Dennison. Mr. Delaine came along too."

"That was swell! I hope I can do the same some day. Is Carol really all right?"

"I heard the doctor say so. You both had a narrow escape, though."

"Well," Charlie observed, "it wouldn't have made so much difference about me, but I was awful scared when I saw Carol. I was sure she had been killed . . . and trying to do something for me!" He tried to divert his thoughts from the picture. "That sure was dandy of Mr. Dennison to bring you right down. He must be nice."

"He is." Wige agreed grimly. He was thinking again of what awaited him upon his return to Jericho. He even had a mental flash of himself asking old Huggins, the banker, if he could have his job back. He'd starve first.

"Did you talk to Mom before you started?"

"Why, sure."

"Then everything's all right." Charlie was silent for a moment, then he observed: "It's funny, Wige. I was sort of afraid to come here at first. But everybody's been so good to me. There are two nice doctors who examined me to make sure I wasn't hurt. One of them asked me if I liked to swim. I told him I couldn't . . . not now."

"What did he say then?"

"That I'd be surprised at the things I could do before they got through with me. Maybe they can make me better, Wige."

"Of course they can, I know it."

"I didn't want to come at all when we started," Charlie confided. "I was afraid you wouldn't like it on account of Carol doing it, when [illegible] she was awful nice to me," he sighed. "I told her last night I loved her most . . . after you and Mom."

"Coming on, aren't you?" Wige leaned back until his face was out of the light. After that, he tried to steer the talk into safer channels and to take the boy's mind off the happenings of the last few hours. It had just occurred to him that perhaps he might be keeping Andy and Dennison waiting, that he'd better hunt them up. There would be direct word from Carol, too. At that moment, there was a tap on the door and a nurse entered.

"Mr. Lennon?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Miss Delaine wishes to speak to you. I will show you to her room if you wish."

"Why, yes . . . thank you. I'll see you again, Chuckie. If not tonight then in the morning. Try to rest now."

As he followed the nurse along a corridor and down a flight of stairs, Wige hoped that Andy would be in the room when he reached it. That would make it a little easier. He drew a long breath when the nurse entered a half-open door and peeped around a screen.

"Mr. Lennon to see you, Miss Delaine." Then she came out and motioned Wige to enter. He gave a slight gasp when he saw Carol propped against the pillows. She looked like the little girl he once knew. Her shining hair was plaited in two little tails, touching either shoulder of her white nightgown. To complete the reversion, her big brown eyes were troubled and her mouth quivered when she spoke.

"Come here, Wige. I had to speak to you. I hope you don't mind." Andy was nowhere in sight.

BIG TOM ASKS QUESTIONS

When you ask a question ask of him who knows;
Thus it is that knowledge swiftly, surely grows.

It isn't often that Peter Rabbit is asked questions. Usually it is the other way around and he does all the asking. So now, when this stranger in the Green Forest, this biggest of all feathered folk, Big Tom Gobbler, began to ask Peter questions it was very flattering and pleasing to Peter's pride. When Big Tom said that he and Mrs. Gobbler were thinking of settling there Peter hastened to tell him that they would be sure to like it.

"So, Buster Bear lives here, does he?" exclaimed Big Tom.

"There isn't another such place as the Green Forest in all the Great World!" declared Peter. "You'll like it. When you come to know it, you'll love it. Everybody does."

"Quit, quit, quit, may be, may be," retorted Big Tom. "That remains to be seen. It all depends on what kind of neighbors we will find here. Now who lives here or hereabouts?"

Peter scratched his head thoughtfully. "To begin with the biggest," said he. "There is Buster Bear."

"So Buster Bear lives here, does he?" exclaimed Big Tom. "We'll have to keep our eyes open for him. Still I'm not sorry to know that he lives here. If it is safe for him it is safe for us. Who else is there?"

"Lightfoot the Deer," replied Peter promptly.

"Good!" said Big Tom, nodding approvingly. "We have nothing to fear from him. Who else?"

"Old Granny Fox and Reddy Fox and Mrs. Reddy," said Peter.

"Quit, quit, quit! Foxes are a nuisance and I hoped that we should find none here!" exclaimed Big Tom. "I must warn Mrs. Gobbler. However, we have had plenty of experience with that tribe and I guess we don't need to worry."

"Who?" demanded Big Tom, looking very much puzzled.

"Old Man Coyote," replied Peter. "He came here from the Far West. He was caught in a trap out there and then brought here and kept in a cage by men. But he managed to get out and then he came here to live. His home is up in the Old Pasture and he hunts on the Green Meadows and in the Green Forest."

"What does he look like, and how big is he?" inquired Big Tom anxiously.

"He looks something like Reddy Fox only he is bigger and grey instead of red," replied Peter.

"What does he eat?" asked Big Tom.

"Anybody he can catch!" said Peter promptly. "The only reason he hasn't eaten me is that he hasn't been smart enough to catch me." Peter grinned.

"Perhaps he isn't very smart," said Big Tom, not thinking how that might sound after what Peter had just said.

"Don't fool yourself. Don't fool yourself in any such way as that," retorted Peter. "He's smarter than old Granny Fox and Reddy Fox together, so take my advice and watch out!"

"Phew!" exclaimed Big Tom beginning to look anxious. "I don't know about staying here. Neighbors of that kind don't sound good to me." He looked this way and that way nervously as if he expected to see Old Man Coyote spring out from behind a tree any minute.

Next Story: Peter calms Big Tom.

S.I.U. Fireman Here Abandons Union, Ship

Marine News

Ranks of the Seafarers' International Union aboard the strike-bound freighter Ss. Seaside were lessened by one yesterday when Fireman Gordon Robertson "threw in his union book" and left the vessel.

In an interview yesterday he said [illegible] aboard the Seaside were "seriously considering" leaving the ship and abandoning their union.

At the present time, Mr Robertson said, the Seaside crew was complete with the exception of two firemen and an oiler. The oiler left the ship several days ago, and is believed to have proceeded to Vancouver.

Meanwhile Harry Smith, spokesman for the rival Canadian Seamen's Union here, said the C.S.U. picket line would be maintained about road entrances to the Esquimalt drydock area, where the Seaside and the Riverside have been strike-bound since Easter week-end.

HALIBUT BROUGHT IN

First halibut catch of the current season, which opened May 1, was brought to Victoria yesterday morning in holds of the packer Co-operator III, of Kyuquot Trollers' Co-operative Association. The landing totaled 25,000 pounds.

The firm's packer Co-Operator I is now on the West Coast and is due here Friday with at least 75,000 pounds of halibut.

Of the 25,000 pounds brought here yesterday, only 5,000 pounds were unloaded for the local market, while the remainder was sent to Vancouver. Prices currently being paid for this species to fishermen are higher than those prevailing at the same time last year, but it is not known how long this situation will last.

GET NEW DOCK

The whistle of a steamship and the horns of 1949 model cars sounded at Bella Coola yesterday as a new $60,000 dock replaced a rickety wharf which berthed Indian dugout canoes 90 years ago.

Bella Coola's 265 population, the majority Indians, had a big day in an auspicious sort of way. Ceremonies were held at the new dock with the arrival of the Union Steamship Cardena, the first ship to tie up.

Masked dancers from the Indian village performed historic rituals—the same dances staged by the Indians here when Alexander Mackenzie, of Mackenzie River fame, reached the sea here in 1793. Chief Sam Pootlass gave a speech of good will.

The new dock, one of the most modern on the British Columbia Coast, was built in 1948 but was not available until the community built a connecting road. It was finished a week ago.

CUT PRICE

One of the country's largest tuna canners has announced a cut of $60 a ton in the dockside price to fishermen for yellowfin, most common variety.

The announcement by the Sun Harbor Packing Co. of San Diego, Calif., said the action reflected consumer market conditions — slowup in demand and prospects of lowering prices.

The late 1948 price of $340 a ton was restored and has been paid since.

States P.G.E. Extension Work Scheduled to Begin by Autumn

WILLIAMS LAKE, B.C., May 3 (CP) — Work on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway extension from Quesnel to Prince George will begin "by Autumn."

In an election speech last night Premier Johnson promised that tenders for the project will be called "shortly."

"But the Government will not stop construction at Prince George because it will not be a railroad until it is completed into the Peace River," he said.

Forecasting a big future for Northern British Columbia the Premier made a fighting defence of free enterprise.

"If the Government doesn't attempt to go into the business of cutting lumber and making pulp, but provides the power for private business to operate the Province will go much further."

The Premier, accompanied by Public Works Minister E. C. Carson is making a tour of Northern British Columbia.

Second Session of Drama Festival Better Than First, Adjudicator Says

The second session of the Victoria Drama Festival, held last evening at the Victoria High School, was, in the opinion of the adjudicator, Sydney Risk of Vancouver, an improvement over the opening night taken as a whole.

As it is to be his policy during the week, Mr. Risk made his public adjudication brief and general, reserving the detailed criticism and praise for the talks with the individual casts following the performance.

The audibility was much better, and the intention of the plays and performers better realized, and there was a minimum of prompting, all of which made for more consistently sustained audience pleasure and interest.

VILLAIN BOOED

The Doncaster Players presented two plays, "Joint Owners in Spain," by Alice Brown, and an amusing and clever burlesque of an old-fashioned "meller drammar," Little Nell," during which the audience had a hilarious time, "booing" the black-moustached villain and loudly applauding the stripe-shirted hero and the unbelievably blonde heroine.

Of "Joint Owners in Spain," the adjudicator praised the characterization, and spoke of the good use of facial expression. He warned about the danger of pitching the voice too high, resulting in a sort of squeak. The set was good, and the production showed imagination and sincerity.

"It takes very good acting to be intentionally bad and some of this cast of the burlesque were excellent in this respect. This type of play is intended to amuse and you will admit from this angle it was a great success," he concluded.

[illegible] Flora K. [illegible]

"Dark Brown," presented by the Victoria Little Theatre, is a most difficult play, as one of the principal characters in the opening scene is a comedy role, while the rest of the play is tense drama. Mr Risk highly commended the playing of this part as it was in a low enough key to be convincing, yet the performance moved steadily to what was described as "a beautifully sustained and moving climax."

IMPRESSED

The audience was particularly impressed with this play, and Miss Diana Ricardo is to be especially commended for her interpretation of the young wife, Janny. She has a lovely voice, and for so young an actress ability well above the average amateur.

The other entry of the Victoria Little Theatre scheduled for performance last evening, "Wayside War" by Margaret Miller, was canceled.

Mrs P. D. Mulholland, vice-chairman of the committee in charge of the festival arrangements, presided, and introduced the adjudicator.

Plays to be presented tonight at 8 in the Victoria High School auditorium are "Granite's a Hundred" by Ronald Gow, presented by Athena Club Dramatic Group, "From Five to Five-Thirty" by Philip Johnson, presented by the Doncaster Players and "It's Autumn Now" by Philip Johnson, presented [illegible]

RECORD STEEL OUTPUT

LONDON (CP).—Britain's steel output in March showed a rise to a record level with an annual rate of 16,296,000 tons. This follows the record production in February and establishes an annual rate of 15,850,000 tons for the first quarter of this year, by far the highest quarterly figure ever recorded.

Dr. Cody Calls for Expansion And Courage in Christendom

A call for expansion, stability, strength and courage in Christendom was issued in Christ Church Cathedral Tuesday night by the Rev. Canon H. J. Cody, C.M.G., D.D., LL.D., of Toronto.

Speaking at a service which marked the opening of the 47th session of the Synod and the 90th anniversary of the founding of the Dioceses of British Columbia, he said all churches should stand together against the forces which strike at the essentials of the Christian religion.

"Don't adopt a policy of parsimony," he urged in the course of a sermon on a text in Isaiah.

"You don't want to have a half-starved ministry. If you put a man on the road to sell your goods you pay him a decent salary."

Eastern Canada is awakening to the fact that ministers' pay is far too low, he said.

"There ought to be more business in our Christianity and perhaps there ought to be a great deal more Christianity in our business."

Tolerance in religion does not mean the absence of belief, he said. "Some people are so extremely broadminded that they are shallow. They don't hold anything with any solid grip."

Find Body Floating In Courtenay River

COURTENAY, May 3.—Body of Peter Hansen, about 65, was found floating in the Courtenay River Tuesday morning by logging crews on their way to work.

Police believe Hansen tripped while walking across a railroad bridge over the Puntledge River Monday night. Bruises on his head indicate he landed on the bank of the river and then rolled into the water.

Hansen was one of the first employees of the Comox Logging and Railway Co., Ltd., in the district.

Brigade Shows Colwood Work

COLWOOD, May 3 — Flames roared high in the air Monday night when an oil-soaked shack was touched off and a fire alarm brought out the Colwood Volunteer Fire Brigade to extinguish the blaze. It was the third annual demonstration of fire fighting by the local brigade staged for the benefit of members of the Colwood Community Club.

Firemen, called from their homes by the alarm, laid hose from a nearby hydrant and had three streams of water combatting the flames in four minutes from the time the alarm was sounded. Fog nozzles made a quick job of extinguishing the fire.

As the fire diminished, the Community Hall supposedly "caught fire," and firemen laid on two more streams of water, and centred all five lines on the main building.

The business meeting of the Community Club followed, and main item on the agenda was the approval of a suggestion to build a landscaped plot in memory of the late Mrs F A. Parker near the site of the proposed tennis court. The court will also serve as a memorial. A committee was named to interview other community organizations and seek their support in the project.

SET FESTIVAL DATE

Members decided to hold a strawberry festival and garden party instead of a picnic this year. E. H Emery offered the use of his garden for the affair, which will take place June 6

A committee was appointed to have a petition signed by residents of the district requesting construction of a sidewalk on Sooke Road from Colwood Corner to Metchosin Road, since the present narrow road greatly endangers the lives of school children who are forced to walk on it.

Following the meeting, films emphasizing the need for fire protection and prevention in the home were shown.

Ask Council at Nanaimo To Probe Municipal Act

NANAIMO, May 3.—The Nanaimo City Council promised consideration to a proposal of a delegation from the Nanaimo Board of Trade that aldermen spearhead an attack on a section of the Municipal Act which empowers municipal councils as a whole to refuse licences, with no tribunal of appeal provided in which the decisions may be reviewed.

The delegation was headed by F. B. Cunliffe, who presented a lengthy brief and cited a case in the Interior of the Province where a court of appeal upheld the arbitrary clause referred to in the Municipal Act.

He said the arbitrary power vested in municipal councils by the section of the act was similar to a principle that men had waged wars against for centuries.

He told of the case of a local man who bought a truck, and was ready to go to work for a firm here when his application to the Public Utilities Commission was turned down on the ground it was in the interest of the public to refuse the licence.

EXPLAINS SITUATION

Mayor George Muir told the delegation complaints the council had received were against aldermen granting licences, not refusing them. Complaints had been from a Board of Trade member who had previously championed an attack on the Municipal Act which empowered the council to refuse licences. The mayor said it did not seem consistent.

In reporting on a recent executive meeting of Union of B.C. Municipalities, the mayor stated the executive did not endorse the plumbers' code, but considered it had merit. The mayor said he was all for amendments to the Hospital Act which worked on a per capita basis. He forecast councillors would also approve once they had an opportunity to study a circular being sent to municipal councils.

The mayor paid tribute to efforts of Rear Admiral De Wolfe for arranging for U.S.S. Samuel Moore, Cmdr. J. B. Smith, and U.S.S. Maddox, Cmdr K. L. McCollough, to pay a visit here May 23.

School Arbitration Unit Slashes Port Estimates

PORT ALBERNI, May 3.—Findings of the school estimates arbitration board were handed down by the chairman, Magistrate T. M Paterson, immediately after convening of the second session of the board on Tuesday afternoon.

The board's decision reduced by $17,332 the original estimates submitted by the school board of Alberni District No. 70 to rural representatives and Port Alberni on February 15.

Negotiation between the councils and the school board reached a stalemate at $196,975. The councils requested the school board to estimate a further $800 revenue by basic grant. In agreeing at the figure of $196,975, the school board had done so with "misgivings," and presented its original estimates to the arbitration board when it met on Monday.

HEAR CITY CLERKS

At the Monday session, submission of the two cities were given by the city clerks, A. F. Taylor and F. L. Kitto.

Mr. Taylor based Alberni's case on the inability of the municipality to pay, and presented tables to show the increase in the cost of education to Alberni taxpayers during the past six years.

Port Alberni's brief, presented by Mr Kitto, enlarged on the inability of taxpayers to pay the sums in the estimates, and contended the budget was excessive.

S. C. K Housser, solicitor for the school board, presented the estimates and called one witness when the board adjourned after a session of two and a half hours. The Tuesday meeting lasted only a few minutes.
